

Youth Mission Opportunity:Youth Mission Co in Asheville, Raleigh and Memphis

Are you looking for a place to take your youth in mission? You might want to take a look at the Youth Mission Co, which has sites in Raleigh, Asheville and, new for 2017, Memphis. Led by Bill Buchanan, they offer mission trips for Middle School and High Schoolers that include physical labor and relational experiences during the day, and planned reflection times with Bible study, group conversations and art. In 2014, youth from the presbytery participated with them in Raleigh and had a very positive experience. You will find more information on their programs, staff and sites by checking their website: <https://youthmissionco.org/>.
