

Ram Akella is Chairman & Managing Director of Centro Holdings LLC and its operating portfolio companies Centrosolar America Inc. and Carasole LLC.

Prior to joining Centrosolar, he served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Oriundus Asset Management Co., a renewable energy private equity fund. He was the founder and Managing Partner at Phoenix Capital Partners. He served as President and Chief Strategy Officer, and Director at Phoenix India Acquisition Corp.

Prior thereto, he was the Managing Director at Dover Finance Group Ltd. Prior to Dover, he founded and served as the Head of Mergers and Acquisitions at Worldwide Media Holdings Ltd. Before this, he headed private direct investments for a family office and oversaw corporate development for all portfolio investments.

He had been an advisor to Cornell University's BR Ventures and was a Member of Johnson School's Advisory Council. He currently is a member of New York Weill Cornell Council that serves as an important link between Weill Cornell Medical College and the Weill Cornell campus of New York-Presbyterian Hospital and a member of Johnson's Dean's Leadership Committee.

He holds an MBA with distinction from Cornell University.