

IES SASKATCHEWAN PRESENTS: LIGHTING CALCULATION TERMS & METHODS

COURSEWORK:

- Understanding of terminology
- Be able to perform basic lighting calculations using the Lumen Method
- Able to calculate illuminance at a point on a horizontal or vertical surface
- Understand how to utilize the Lumen Method to better model real-world applications
- Be introduced to computer software for lighting calculations

PREREQUISITES:

- IES Fundamentals of Lighting or 5+ experience in the lighting industry (for further information on prerequisites contact Tim Caswell at tcaswell@alfaengltd.com)

WWW.IES.ORG

WHEN:

April 5, 2017 (Saskatoon)

April 12, 2017 (Regina)

8:00 am—12:00 pm*

WHERE:

Saskatoon

Church of Christ
134 Cardinal Crescent

Regina

Westburne Electric
1802 Stock Road

PRICE:

$150 (Members)

$185 (Non-Members)

*Coffee and snacks will be provided