Join the summer reading mission to collect 5,000 books for the Books for Youth campaign. Team up with the Indianapolis Colts, the Indiana Department of Child Services and The Indianapolis Public Library to provide kids in foster care with a backpack filled with 25 books.

Trade your summer reading points for a prize book and then donate that book to a child in need. Or donate new and gently used books from home. Be an Everyday Superhero to a Hoosier kid who needs it most!
