

Some of the things all of us need to think about, and share our views on:

- Who we are as a congregation, where we have been and what issues from the past may be impacting our present and future
- Where we want to go, what we want to accomplish as a congregation
- What we seek in a settled minister, and how that person would fit within our congregation

There will be surveys, meetings and much more happening during this process, and everyone in the congregation needs to participate!

The Search Committee selection process asks each member of the congregation to nominate up to 3 people to serve on the Search Committee, so consider whom you would like to nominate, and please consider yourself as well. It is an important position requiring time and commitment, but it's rewarding and has a huge impact on the entire congregation and our future.

Your Transition Team is in the midst of conducting our six month Interim Progress Report and we want to hear from you about two things: 1) any issues from the past you think may be affecting us and could keep us from being fully prepared to call our next minister, and 2) your assessment on how the congregation is making progress on the goals of interim ministry (see last week's Week on the Peak for the goals), your thoughts and feelings. Please keep in mind that we cannot fix problems, but we do want to listen and hear your views. You can talk to any of our Transition Team members: Beckett Gladney, Terri King, Tiffany Longfield, Shaun Klopfenstein, Eric Dittmar, and Mark Rahman. We are here for you, and we care about what you are thinking and feeling.
