

Pacific Central District of the Unitarian Universalist Association
Nominating Committee Report
2017

The Nominating Committee presents our proposed slate of candidates for the 2017-2018 PCD-UUA Board of Directors and the PCD-UUA Nominating Committee.

For the Board

The Rev. David Usher - Minister, Acting Associate Minister of Mount Diablo UU Church in Walnut Creek.

Running for a First Two Year Term

Dusty Taylor, Member, Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Tuolumne County

Running for a First Two Year Term

Charles DuMond

Running for a Third Two Year Term

Continuing Board Members

Holly Ito - 2nd year of Second Term

Paul Teplitz - 2nd year of First Term

The Nominating Committee could not identify a candidate for the second year of the Rev. Russ Menk's first Two year Term.

YRUU Appointed member:

According to the bylaws, an additional member will be appointed by the YRUU to represent the youth. As there is no YRUU in the district, the Board and youth community will determine an appropriate liaison.

For the Nominating Committee

The Rev. Catherine Ishida – running for a second Two Year Term

Continuing Nominating Committee Members

Mr. James Lewis – second year of First Two Year Term

The Nominating Committee could not identify candidates for the three remaining positions open on this Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Bonnie Dlott
The Rev Catherine Ishida
Mitch Sukalski
Jim Lewis

Biographies for Nominees:

Rev. David Usher is a lifelong Unitarian. He was raised in the Adelaide, Australia congregation, and has had ministries in the UK and USA for the past 35 years. He is now semi-retired, but is Acting Associate Minister of Mount Diablo UU Church in Walnut Creek. He was the founder and first President of The International Council of Unitarians and Universalists, and is the author of two books. He now lives in San Mateo.

Dusty Taylor is a member of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Tuolumne County, where she has served as the President of the Board of Directors. She holds a Masters of Nursing degree and a Masters degree in Healthcare administration, and is currently the Assistant Director at Mercy Home Care/Dignity Health. She is now a seminarian at Starr King School for the Ministry.
