“Brother and Sister Show at Sokol Gallery”

September 28, 2017
Sharon, PA

Sokol Studios and Art Gallery is hosting an exhibition titled “Whimsies and Watercolors” featuring the works of Gary Barnes, PhD and his sister Linda Brink. This brother and sister exhibition opened on September 27th and will run through October 31st. Sokol Studios and Art Gallery is located at 150 E. State Street, Sharon, PA.

Gary Barnes’s works feature a combination of mixed media paintings and ink drawings. These whimsical works makes use of bright colors and swirling brush strokes that reflect his inner humor. They brighten the atmosphere of any room.

Linda Brink is an accomplished, award-winning artist whose paintings have captivated audiences locally and internationally. Her watercolor paintings capture not only the authentic likeness of the subject but also the depth of emotion that resonates from the piece.

This brother and sister artist duo have displayed together at other venues throughout the region. Both have had their works selected into several major juried shows and have won awards for their work. Gary and Linda are both members of the local art group, Random Acts of Artists. Linda now sits as Vice President of this organization.

Sokol Studios Art Gallery is an art gallery and creative arts studio. Open to the public, during business hours visitors can come in and create some awesome artwork in the open-air studio surrounded by the current exhibition to inspire the imagination.
