Interacting with and supporting families experiencing complex problems is a challenge as they try to navigate systems.

Are you considering all issues families face when working with your clients? Are you truly understanding what caretaking means in today's world? Are you effectively reaching them or just shuffling out resource phone numbers? Increase your agency and staff awareness of the culture of care taking in our world today and what it really takes for families to succeed.

Join presenter Karen Scallan for this eye opening discussion on supporting family care takers today.
