This two-hour session will provide:

- An overview of transition from school to the community,
- Available supports, opportunities and services,
- Local and national examples of successful transitions,
- Working with Louisiana Rehabilitation Services (LRS), the Social Security Administration (SSA) and Community Rehabilitation Programs (CRPS) to obtain meaningful WORK,
- Funding and agency "rules"/policies,
- How to select a service provider, what services to expect and how employment services are delivered,
- Impact of earnings on SSI, SSDI and other federal benefits,
- Information to help negotiate state and local agencies that will provide these services.
