

In addition to the entrant's contact information, here's what you'll need to complete the entry form:

- A unique e-mail address for the entrant.
  - The registration software will only accept one submission per e-mail address under artist information. If you are submitting artwork for more than one person, you must use a different e-mail address for each person under artist information.
- Information about the entrant's disability and adaptations and techniques used because of the disability
- Title, medium and price for your artwork – and hold on to this information, you'll need it again later!
- The entrant's artist statement, 500 characters max.
