THANK YOU, ST. MARK!

First, I want to be very transparent and tell you that offerings and pledges greatly help us to be a church with a mission.

We have big plans for St. Mark. We just decided to offer insurance to all full-time employees of the preschool.

We are hoping to add part-time staff positions to support our youth and children. It is part of our baptismal promise to all our children.

We want to make our ministries stronger and our worship more vibrant.

We want to make sure that all can feel not just welcomed here but fully included, so we are planning to add an accessible restroom and an elevator.

We hope to continue to pay off our HVAC loans. When we are free of debt, we are free to focus on mission and ministry.

This year reminded us more than ever that we need our church to be a place where we come to find and provide comfort, hope and purpose. In times of tragedy and trial, we come together and find strength and light where there is darkness. We are thankful for that.

We want people who enter here to immediately know that we love and care for this place as if it would be our own home. If you have any suggestions or passion to help us make this a reality, we really want to hear from you. This is your church.

This church is for ministry and for worship, and all who enter here should know they are called to join us in that ministry. This place belongs to Christ.

I want to say thank you for all the offerings, all the people who filled out ministry forms, all the pledge cards returned. These offerings will help us plan and do mission and support St. Mark ministries.

May the experience of giving and commitment give us a chance to remember what we have received before we move into the Advent season of expectant joy.

Thanks for prayerfully considering giving your offering and pledges.

Thanks be to God for all God has offered to our lives.

Thanks be to God for you and for all you mean to St. Mark.

- Pastor Viktoria

St. Mark Lutheran Church, with Christ Jesus as the cornerstone, is a people called by God to be servants of all people; to experience God's saving grace through faith; to come together as the body of Christ in worship and celebration of the gifts of God; and to reach out to those outside the church with witness to the loving grace of God through Christ Jesus. To answer this call, our mission will include reaching out to and beyond the members of St. Mark.

ADVENT SEASON – Council President Duane Osheim

The first Sunday in Advent is December 3. We, of course, are joyfully awaiting the celebrations of Christmas, but we should also remember that Advent, like Lent, is meant to be a period of prayerful reflection.

A previous pastor once urged us to take time as we prepared for Christmas to consider God's gifts to us. At Mission Council's last meeting, Pastor Viktoria led us in just such a reflection. She asked us what we most appreciated about being part of this church— Tony discussed this in a recent Children's Sermon. Tony mention the sharing of the Peace, the recognition of all the people who are part of our congregation or who are worshipping with us. Others expanded on this mentioning the Lord's Supper which connects us with God and with our community. We gather at the table not because of our virtues, but because God calls us just as we are. And we reach out to others just as they are.

We realize that having been blessed by God, we should go out into our community. As Paul said (Colossians 3:16-17), "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,... And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

WORSHIP HIGHLIGHTS

December 3 – First Sunday of Advent: Stir up your power, and come! The psalmist's plea in Psalm 80:2 has become familiar to us in the Advent prayers. Isaiah wants God to rip the heavens open. Both cry out for an apparently distant, angry God to show up, to save, to restore. When we hear Jesus describing the coming of the Son of Man with stars falling from heaven, it can sound dire and horrible, not like anything we would ever hope for. But when we really look at the suffering of people God loves, we can share the hope that God would tear open the heavens and come.

Isaiah 64:1-9 • Psalm 80:1-7,17-19 • 1 Corinthians 1:3-9 • Mark 13:24-37

December 10 – Second Sunday of Advent, Advent Musical celebration at worship: John called people to repent, to clear the decks, to completely reorder their lives so that nothing would get in the way of the Lord's coming. The reading from Isaiah gives the context for this radical call: the assurance of forgiveness that encourages us to repent; the promise that the coming one will be gentle with the little ones. Isaiah calls us all to be heralds with John, to lift up our voices fearlessly and say, "See, your God is coming!" We say it to one another in worship, in order to say it with our lives in a world in need of justice and peace.

Isaiah 40:1-11 • Psalm 85:1-2, 8-13 • 2 Peter 3:8-15a • Mark 1:1-8

December 17 – Third Sunday of Advent: "Rejoice always," begins the reading from First Thessalonians. Isaiah and the psalmist make clear that God is turning our mourning into laughter and shouts of joy. "All God's children got a robe," go the words of the spiritual. It is not so much a stately, formal, pressed outfit as it is a set of party clothes, clothes that make us feel happy just to put on. We receive that robe in baptism, and in worship we gather for a foretaste of God's party.

Isaiah 61:1-4,8-11 • Psalm 126 • 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24 • John 1:6-8, 19-28

December 24 – Fourth Sunday of Advent, Christmas Eve: God keeps the promise made to David, to give him an everlasting throne. The angel tells Mary that God will give David's throne to her son Jesus. She is perplexed by Gabriel's greeting and by the news of her coming pregnancy, but she is able still to say, "Count me in." We who know that Jesus is called king only as he is executed still find it a mystery hard to fathom, but with Mary today we hear the news of what God is up to and say, "Count us in."

2 Samuel 7:1-11, 16 • Psalm 89:1-4, 19-26 • Romans 16:25-27 • Luke 1:26-38

December 31 – First Sunday of Christmas: In the psalm all the natural world praises God, including all humanity, male and female, young and old. The voices of Simeon and 84-year-old Anna join the chorus today, recognizing what God is doing in Jesus. Simeon's song is often sung after communion, for we have seen God's salvation in the assembled community and have held Jesus in our hands in the bread. Then, like the prophet Anna, we speak of Jesus to all who look for the healing of the world.

Isaiah 61:10—62:3 • Psalm 148 • Gallatians 4:4-7 • Luke 2:22-40

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

All are invited to join us after worship next Sunday, December 3 for tree decorating and snacks! Please bring a snack or heavy appetizer to share as we trim the tree. Parents, please note that a special guest will join us – St. Nicholas!

The Women's Book club will be meeting for dinner instead of discussing a book this month. We will be going to Shadwell's Restaurant on Monday, December 4 at 6:30. In January we will be back at the church to discuss Wild Swans by Jung Chang.

Pastor Viktoria warmly invites ALL parents and all who are or have been involved with our youth ministry to talk with her about our hopes and plans for this ministry in the future. She wants to hear about your needs and plan ahead to fulfill this important mission. Please join her after worship on Sunday, December 10 for coffee, snacks and discussion. Nursery care will be provided for children of all ages.

Please mark your calendar for Sunday, December 10 at 2pm, when Thrivent will be holding two workshops in Fellowship Hall at St. Mark: Retire Wisely; and Parents, Kids and Money Matters (for kids ages 6-10). All members from the area Lutheran churches are invited to attend, Thrivent member or not. Cookies, coffee and conversation will also be provided - see you there!

Please join us Monday, December 11 from 7-8pm at Trinity Irish Pub on the Corner for Beer & Hymns! We will meet on the second Monday of each month for singing and fellowship with members of our church, members of other area churches, and of course, the UVA community. Hope to see you there!

Christmas poinsettias are available for purchase for $15 each to decorate our sanctuary for the Christmas season. Sign-up by December 15 on the sheet posted outside the office, make checks payable to St. Mark, note "Poinsettia" on the comment line, and leave in the Office Manager's box or the offering plate. Please consider purchasing a poinsettia in honor or in memory of a loved one.

THANK YOU to everyone who signed up to provide a Christmas gift to our two families at the Shelter for Help in Emergency (SHE). Please remember that gifts are due back to the church by Thursday, December 14 for an early delivery on the morning of December 15. Thank you again for your generosity this Christmas!

ELCA Good Gifts – World Hunger Appeal: More Alternative Gift Opportunities! Check out the display in the narthex for ideas for more alternative gifts this holiday season. Catalogs are available with many possible gift options to benefit people around the world. There are also cards to send to notify those you choose to honor in this way at Christmas time. Questions?—talk to Laurel McClurken.

Each holiday season, St. Mark anticipates and relies on a seasonal increase in contributions. It is through the donations of every individual and family in the congregation that we are able to carry on our work now and throughout the year. If you need a convenient way to make recurring contributions or plan to make an additional gift before the end of the year, we encourage you to check out our electronic giving option. To set up a recurring giving schedule, please complete a paper authorization form (found in the alcove in the narthex or in the front office) and return it to the church office. Thank you for your generosity and support!

NOTES FROM THE GARDEN: Red Berry Spectacular!

It seems like only a moment ago it was spring and the garden was alive with vibrant color, yet once again fall has come and after its bust of lovely color, the garden is ready for its long winter nap. Nonetheless, there is one spectacle to enjoy all winter long: the wonderfully brilliant red berries of the three Foster's Hollies (Ilex x attenauta "Fosteri") planted in the perennial garden. As you no doubt have noticed in past years their fruit is quite prolific, loved by the birds, and very attractive, providing great color all winter long. The Foster's Holly is a hybrid between two native American Hollies of which there are over a thousand varieties, some becoming trees while others grow barely a foot tall; if they have berries they may be red, black or yellow and their leaves may be smooth-edged or the traditional spiny-edged "holly-shaped" leaves. Unlike the American Holly (Ilex opaca) that can grow up to forty or fifty feet high, the Foster's Holly is much smaller and more compact growing just twenty to twenty five feet high with a spread of eight to twelve feet. The one in the garden beside the main door was planted almost thirty years ago and now shades some of the perennial flowers that formerly were in full sun.

While in most species of hollies male and female flowers are borne on separate plants with only the females bearing fruit, the Foster's Holly is self-fertile, producing fruit by self-pollination. In the spring it does have small white 4-petaled flowers that are lovely, but fairly inconspicuous, so you have to look closely to see them. It grows best in full sun, but will tolerate partial shade. You will note that the one planted about fifteen years ago beside the middle door in a fairly shaded location does have fewer berries than the one planted about the same time in a much sunnier location by the education wing garden. It likes moist well-drained soil, but is very tolerant of drought once it is established so I have not had to water it during dry spells.

Hope you enjoy the delightful red berries of the three Foster's Hollies this winter! Their red berries matured in late October and are ready to delight your eye now! A final note for the year: hope you now have a nice big pile of mulched leaves from all the raking you did in your yard – they will certainly make your plants happy next year!

- Helen Ida Moyer, volunteer with the Piedmont Virginia Master Gardeners

PRESCHOOL

Merry Christmas and holiday greetings from the preschool! This is such a special time of year to celebrate traditions with family and friends. On the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, we began a new tradition in the preschool by inviting families to join us for a "Festive Family Feast!" We had originally scheduled this event as a potluck and then decided that making another holiday dish is the LAST thing busy parents need to be doing at this time of year! Instead, the children all worked together with Nana to make "Friendship Soup" and parents/family members joined us for lunch in the Fellowship Hall. It was a lovely event and one we'll look forward to in the years to come. A tradition in the making!

We'd like to invite you to join us on Saturday, December 9th at 9:00am for another tradition - the "St. Nicholas Pancake Breakfast and Shoe Drive!" This is an opportunity for families of the preschool and members of the parish to come together in fellowship, celebrate the holidays and share in a collaborative effort to collect shoes for children and adults in need in the Charlottesville area. St. Nicholas will be on hand to pass out oranges to the children and of course, a delicious pancake breakfast, with all the trimmings (including vegetarian sausage!)

On Sunday, November 12th, the congregation voted to approve the 2018 Preschool Budget and in doing so, ushered in health insurance benefits for all full-time faculty and full-time employees of the church. The response to this decision has been a resounding "YES!" The teachers have expressed their gratitude, saying to me and to others "I feel so valued!" Thank you for this gift!

I pray that you have a wonderful Christmas and that the joy of our Savior, born in a manger, would be with you now and always.

- Carla Moody, Preschool Director

THE LISTENING PROJECT

In November we welcomed at our worship service Elaine Whitney, the vice president of the Sierra Pacific Synod of the ELCA. She visited our congregation to worship and to listen to leaders, teachers and lay people. She shared gifts of communion elements of wine, grape juice and wafers and participated in our worship as a communion servant.

Why is listening so important? Her synod and congregation is engaged in a special project with our community. The listening project provides one-to-one online prayers and listening to our community. In the wake of violent and traumatic events of August 12, the UVA community and residents of Charlottesville have struggled to regain balance and a sense of normalcy. The news cameras have gone away but our community continue to press for a racially-equitable environment. The listening project is an expression of being Lutheran and being Church for the sake of the world. When natural disasters occur, we do not hesitate to act. We have the power to act and help our neighbors in distress by engaging in listening, dialogue and prayer.

Psalm 25: 15-17

*15 My eyes are ever on the Lord,
for only he will release my feet from the snare.
16 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.
17 Relieve the troubles of my heart and free me from my anguish.*

CHARLOTTESVILLE EVENTS

Join The Oratorio Society of Virginia for this beloved Charlottesville tradition and family favorite on Saturday, December 16 at 2:30 Or 7:30pm. Music Director Michael Slon conducts a 90-person chorus composed of some of the community's finest singers.

In what's become an anticipated and delightful Oratorio Society custom, two guest youth choruses will perform during the concerts. Moreover, there will be an opportunity for the audience to join in the singing with the chorus, so that everyone can "sing in" the holidays together! An accompaniment of brass, organ, and percussion rounds out what is sure to be a vibrant and heart-lifting performance.

Bring your whole family and share in the warmth and beauty of an Oratorio Christmas. Tickets are available through the Paramount Theater box office or from chorus members.

MISSION COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS -November 2017

- Interviews are being held for the position of youth and family ministry.
- The Mission Council intends to submit to the congregation a 2018 budget recommendation that includes a 0.1% increase to our benevolence budget for the Virginia Synod.
- A preschool governance group is being formed to study the preschool/ congregation relationship.
- The annual congregational meeting is called for January 28th, 2018. At that time reports will be adopted, mission council members elected, and the congregational budget approved.
- It is thought that Evangelism and Preschool governance will both be a focus for next year.
- Tom Hecmanczuk will be the Council liaison to Mutual Ministry. The group will meet every other month.
- At the December meeting we will work on 'staffing' the committee structure that we adopted in the summer, as well as continuing the discussion about HVAC loan.

VIRGINIA SYNOD NEWS

Bishop Bob Humphrey, in consultation with the Synod Council, has announced a new plan for synod staff beginning on January 1st, 2018. The plan is designed to provide as much support as possible in helping congregations, rostered ministers, institutions and agencies and the wider church meet the challenges and take advantage of new ministry and mission opportunities. Bishop Humphrey said, "We are excited about and committed to building bridges that connect the richness of our past with the amazing potential God has in store for our future."

To that end, the plan includes a full-time Assistant to the Bishop living in the Southwest, a full-time Director for Evangelical Mission/Assistant to the Bishop living in the East and the Bishop living in Harrisonburg. All will serve the entire synod while being strategically located. Pastor Dave Delaney will focus on the synod's trademark ministries and institutions serving Youth and Young Adults. The Synod offices will continue to be located at Bittle Hall, Roanoke College and at First Lutheran Church in Norfolk.

The Rev. Kelly Bayer Derrick, M.Div, S.T.M has accepted the call to serve as Assistant to the Bishop. Pastor Bayer Derrick has served as Pastor of St. Philip Lutheran Church, Roanoke since her ordination in 2007. In addition, she is a Visiting Professor of Religious Studies at Hollins University. She intends to continue in this role on a limited basis in addition to her responsibilities as Assistant to the Bishop.

Pastor Bayer Derrick is passionate about the gospel and about God's call and command to love God and love our neighbors. She is committed to and an innovative leader in ministries of social justice, equality, accompaniment – globally and locally, Christian formation, youth and more. She is also deeply committed to our Synod, the ELCA, and our ecumenical and interfaith partnerships. Pastor Bayer Derrick offers wonderful complementary skills, perspective, and experiences that will significantly expand and enhance our mission and ministry in the Virginia Synod, ELCA.

We are deeply grateful for the ministry of all our staff, especially those leaving at the end of the year:

- Pastor Chris Price, having served as a part-time Assistant to the Bishop (in the East), will be retiring. He has been tremendously helpful, inspiring and supportive to staff, rostered ministers and congregations throughout our Synod in so many ways.

- Deacon Mindy Reynolds has organized key ministries for building and supporting healthy leaders and churches in our synod through the re-introduction of the Healthy Congregations initiative and Pastoral Leadership Consulting Groups; she held an active leadership role on our Ministerium Team, implemented Synod Council's policy regarding boundary trainings, and worked collaboratively with Portico Benefit Services and other denominations to provide services and offer events that promoted health and wellness. She also has served above and beyond her part-time Call in support of many synod-wide events and programs.

- Lisa Allagas has served as part of our support staff in the Salem office and we are very appreciative of all the ways she has been a blessing to us.

With deep gratitude, we wish Chris, Mindy and Lisa God's richest blessings.

Becky Walls, Emily Pilat, Tammy Kasper, Richard Hoffman and Skip Zubrod will continue to serve our synod in similar capacities from the Salem office and Lenae Osmondson will move into a full-time administrative position serving out of the Norfolk office.

The next steps will be taken in cooperation with the ELCA Division for Mission to Call a Director for Evangelical Mission (DEM) who will also serve as an Assistant to the Bishop. That process will include a nationwide posting of the position and interviews before a Call is issued.
