Holiday Activity - Event for Kids & Families

Join in the FUN of Sewing a Gift for another Child!

LOCATION: Harvest by Kellie Liken at Sonnenalp Club in Singletree – 1265 Berry Creek Rd. Edwards

DATE: December 3, 2016

TIME: 1:00pm - 3:00pm

ACTIVITY: Holiday Event for Kids to Sew and give to another child

Cost: $10.00 per participant

Harvest by Kelly Liken and Inside Singletree magazine invite you to join a Singletree community holiday Sewing Event for kids. Parental supervision requested. Non-profit organization, Patterns of Joy Sewing Outreach - 'Kids Serving Kids', will guide kids in sewing the gift of Christmas Stockings to be filled with goodies to encourage hope and compassion for another child. Kids will be welcome to sew an ornament to keep. Volunteers and sewing machines will be greatly appreciated.

Please contact Patternsofjoysewing@gmail.com for questions or details. RSVP is appreciated, but not required.

As a new non-profit in the Eagle County community, the mission of Patterns of Joy Life Skills Enrichment is to promote 'Kids Serving Kids.' While learning the life skill of sewing the participants are developing social skills of leadership and of self-esteem. The sewing projects are given to families and children challenged by life circumstances, creating a pay it forward gesture of compassion and respect.
