

Chicago Choral Artists present:
Heinrich Schütz's

Saturday, October 7
7:30 PM

Der Schwanengesang

Photo by Paul Crisanti

First Saint Paul's Lutheran Church

1301 N LaSalle Drive, Chicago ☰ (312) 642-7172

www.FSPauls.org ☰ www.Facebook.com/FSPaulsChicago

First Saint Paul's is delighted to host the first in a series of concerts by the Chicago Choral Artists on Saturday, October 7th at 7:30 p.m. This performance features Der Schwanengesang (Swan Song) by German composer Heinrich Schütz based on Psalm 119, the Magnificat, and Psalm 100. The concert is presented by CCA Kammerchor, an ensemble of sixteen singers from the Chicago Choral Artists roster, organist Mark Schuldiner, gambist Anna Steinhoff, and bassist Jerry Fuller.

Chicago Choral Artists, formerly known as the James Chorale, is an ensemble of talented musicians who have been presenting innovative music to Chicago audiences for nearly 40 years. They perform under the artistic direction of Michael D. Costello. For many years the James Chorale was under the direction of James Rogner, former music director at First Saint Paul's.

You can purchase tickets at First Saint Paul's before the show for $25 for adults, $20 for seniors and $10 for students. Download a parking pass on the First Saint Paul's website to park for free just two blocks west of the church in the Franklin School lot on W Goethe St.

We are happy to announce that CCA is donating two tickets to this October 7 concert and the December 16 concert at Grace Lutheran Church in River Forest, to the silent auction at First Saint Paul's Oktoberfest on September 23.

Future CCA concert dates at First Saint Paul's

- A Candlelight Christmas, December 16, 7:30 PM
- Choral Gems from England, April 7, 2018, 7:30 PM

If you plan to attend more than one concert in the series, discounted tickets are available online at chicagochoralartists.org or by calling 773-658-9799.

First Saint Paul's Lutheran Church

Proclaiming Christ ☺ Nurturing Faith ☺ Serving Others