SMALL BUSINESS SOLUTIONS

Think you can't afford freight management? Think again.

If you're a small to medium-size business, freight management is probably low on your long task list. Good news! You don't have to hire a full-time team member to manage your freight, and you don't have to settle for freight costs eating into your profits. With CMG as your freight management partner, you can have access to our 20+ years of freight expertise with an affordable monthly retainer.

REPORTING

Using our proprietary iTMS software, we provide you with a custom monthly report and expert analysis to make sure you stay on track to save the most money possible.

OPERATIONAL SUPPORT

Each month you'll receive one hour of operational support with your dedicated freight management partner, which includes suggestions for further reducing freight expenditures, process improvements, and a review of your monthly report.

AFFORDABILITY

Our fees are simple. A monthly retainer of $350 gives you access to our expertise and assistance. With no contracts ever, what do you have to lose?
