

DOLLHOUSE AND MINIATURES EXHIBIT

Coming to the National Soaring Museum

Elmira, NY – The Second Annual Dollhouse and Miniatures Exhibit opens at the National Soaring Museum on Wednesday, November 15. The exhibit continues through the holidays and winter months during regular museum hours, 10-5 through December and 10-4 January through March.

Area miniaturists bring their many dollhouses and room boxes together at the museum to present a truly must-see exhibit. There are several new exhibits this year, including an exquisite 4-story Victorian house by Pat Orcutt of Penn Yan, which has never been exhibited before.

Admission to the Dollhouse and Miniature Exhibit is included in the regular museum admission of $7.50 for Adults, $6.00 for seniors, and $4.50 for children 7-18. Children 6 years and under are free and there is also a family rate of $20 which includes 2 adults and 2 or more children or grandchildren.

The National Soaring Museum, located on Harris Hill at 51 Soaring Hill Drive, Elmira, NY, is home to one of the largest collections of gliders and sailplanes in the world, the United States Soaring Hall of Fame, and an impressive collection of soaring artifacts and memorabilia.
