If you support people who are walking a journey of recovery to mental wellness, bring your experience and knowledge to this day of learning on March 9 to discuss innovative and transformative practices of wellness. Dr. Martin Brokenleg, a respected leader, walks with indigenous lived knowledge and is an expert in mental health and wellness, intergenerational trauma and speaks to our journey in reconciliation. Dr. Brokenleg will share his wisdom to support the work of culture and healing. The afternoon will be filled with those sharing their knowledge on practices that will move wellness forward, with a focus on reconciliation and recovery-oriented practices in mental health care.
