

Scott Bach

Executive Director of the Association of NJ Rifle & Pistol Clubs

NRA Board of Director Member

Scott Bach is Executive Director of the Association of New Jersey Rifle & Pistol Clubs and New Jersey's only sitting member of the NRA Board of Directors. A gun rights leader in the most hostile territory imaginable for nearly two decades, Scott has redefined the meaning of "relentless" as he has repeatedly beaten the odds, often leaving NJ gun-ban politicians stunned, embarrassed, and defeated.

He left his legal career behind to pursue his true calling - the defense of Liberty against those trying to extinguish it. Often demonized in the liberal media, and sometimes the target of death threats from those who preach "tolerance," Scott leads one million gun owners, hunters, sportsmen, and sportswomen in the Garden State. His prior government experience includes work for a U.S. Congressman, a U.S. Court of Appeals Judge, and the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York. He lives in Morris County.
