

Susan Snow, Snow Gallery & Studio Owner

I studied Art History in college at both the University of Washington and the University of Utah and thus began my love affair with Art. My marriage to V. Douglas Snow and our life in rural Wayne County nurtured my love affair with the lands of Southern Utah. Since the death of my husband, I am more committed than ever to be a champion for the land I love and for Art that I believe nourishes our humanity.