

The FLOURISH St. Louis newsletter brings you information about how St. Louis' infant mortality crisis impacts our community, our progress toward helping every baby celebrate a healthy and happy first birthday, and how you can get involved in this important work.

We're Ready to Launch!

We need you to take action to save St. Louis' babies!

After extensive review of data and conversations with community members, health providers, and business and civic leaders, FLOURISH St. Louis is proud to announce its priority areas and formation of Action Teams for reducing infant mortality. Join our Nov. 30 event to learn how you can get involved.

One Mom's Devastating Story of Loss

Though Nicollette went into pre-term labor with her daughter Jaz'myn, her baby was healthy – until seven weeks later, when Jaz'myn died unexpectedly in her sleep. Read about the challenges families like Nicollette's face as they cope with the loss of their baby.

The logo for FLOURISH St. Louis is at the top left, with the tagline 'The Initiative for Healthy Babies & Families'. To the right, a section titled 'We Want to Hear from You!' encourages sharing stories of loss or premature birth to help understand challenges and make St. Louis a place where babies thrive. Below this is a red form titled 'MY STORY OR IDEA TO HELP ST. LOUIS FLOURISH' with fields for Name, Email, and Phone, and a large text area for the story or idea.
