March 2017 West Jersey Presbytery

Editor leadbeaterhc@verizon.net

Dear Presbyterian Women of West Jersey:

It is hard to believe that we are almost three months into 2017. The months seem to pass so quickly. We are busy preparing for our Spring Gathering which will be Saturday, April 22 at Presbyterian Church of Burlington where we will welcome Pam Stalcup of Prevent Child Abuse NJ (please see the flyer for additional details). We will dedicate our Birthday Offering and welcome new board members.

I would like to share a personal experience; one that I hope will enlighten and elate those of you who are reading this letter. I spent the weekend visiting two of my children who live in Pittsburgh. What you may not know about Pittsburgh is that not only is it the home of a large theological seminary—the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, but it is home to many Presbyterian Churches. My son attends one such church, a very large church located in a lovely, well-established neighborhood of Pittsburgh. Imagine my shock and dismay when I began to research PWs in the many churches of Pittsburgh only to find out that NONE exist.

Here in South Jersey I believe we take for granted our many PWs and some of us are concerned that those that exist are shrinking in size. At board meetings, we discuss how we can reach more women and what the most effective strategies are for maintaining and growing our PWs and yet a city like Pittsburgh abounding in Presbyterian churches have no PWs. So you might be thinking why I chose to write on this subject at this time.

I have been an active member of Trinity Presbyterian Church's PW for over 25 years and for almost six years on the board of West Jersey Presbyterian Women. I cannot imagine what my life, both spiritually and socially, would have been without PW. My sisters in Christ have cried with me, they have laughed with me and most importantly shared this journey called life. Each of us has a PW story and today, I ask that you reflect on that story. How has PW made a difference in your life?

I pray that your reflections bring memories filled with both laughter and tears and pictures of how God brought you to this wonderful organization we call Presbyterian Women. Share these reflections with each other and women who do not yet know who we are. May God bless each of you and your journeys with your sisters in Christ.

I am yours in Christ,

Lisa Huber, Moderator, Coordinating Team of West Jersey Presbytery

Presbyterian Women Churchwide Quarterly Newsletter : (articles for your use)

Celebrate the Gifts of Women is celebrated in the PC(USA) the first Sunday in March or whatever Sunday is most appropriate for your congregation. The Celebrate the Gifts of Women worship resource appeared in the November/December issue of Horizons magazine; the worship resource and other resources may be ordered from <http://store.pcusa.org>, or downloaded from pcusa.org/allwomen. We've heard from several of our West Jersey PW's who are leading worship with these resources—Haddon Hts. FPC on March 26, and Haddonfield FPC also in March . Kudos to our women who are mentoring others to this leadership role . You might even have a women's choir for the day, as is happening at Haddon Hts —giving our basses and tenors a day to sit in the congregation.

PW 101

If you are already reading the Quarterly Newsletter online from www.presbyterianwomen.org , then you are probably a PW leader! And you probably know all things PW! But many of our faithful women are unaware of some of the finer points of their amazing organization. That's why we are beginning a "PW 101" series. Each idea in the series is presented in such a way that newsletter editors and circle leaders can paste into their own documents and presentations. And if you are so moved to share an idea or two (or three or four) that you think should be part of this series, please share with Carissa.herold@pcusa.org. PW 101.1: The PW Purpose The foundation for all that Presbyterian Women is and does is the PW Purpose, our mission statement. Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves • to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study, • to support the mission of the church worldwide, • to work for justice and peace, and • to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and witnesses to the promise of God's kingdom. New! Help for those new to PW!

Presbyterian Women in the Synod:

By Charlotte Hasselbarth

Who is the foreigner? Who is the native? What is it like to be “the other”? These are the questions to be explored at PW in the Synod of the Northeast’s Triennial Gathering, “The Household of Faith,” August 18–19, 2017, at the Desmond Hotel and Conference Center, Albany, NY. Keynote speakers will be Larissa Kwong Abazia, Past-Moderator of the General Assembly, PC(USA), and Carol Winkler, current PW Churchwide moderator.

LOCAL PW NEWS:

Audubon Logan Memorial PW In March the Ladies of Logan Memorial in Audubon will take part in 3 simple Lenten soup suppers. Each week 6 volunteers will bring crockpots of soup to be served along with rolls and butter. We will also view and discuss a video on the life of Jesus. A collection will be taken for IMA World Health to provide medicines for people in third world countries.

In April, Ruth group and the Sunday School children will be making hygiene kits for Church World Service. We're hoping other church members will also help with this worthy project.

Cherry Hill Trinity PW

Presbyterian Women is a vibrant part of Trinity. It consists of 7 Circles which meet monthly to have a Bible study and fellowship with other women of Trinity. PW has three dinners with programs during the year, one in the fall, a dinner and worship and communion service in December and a spring dinner and program which includes the installation of officers for the following year. Each circle has a mission project each month and at each of the three programs throughout the year we collect for a specific organization. Some of the charitable organizations that PW supports are: R & M Boarding Home, Caring Hearts Ministries, Robin's Nest, The Ronald McDonald House in Camden, Cathedral Kitchen, Mother's Matters, Urban Promise, Hope Works, Seeds of Hope Ministries, VOA (Volunteers of America), Adopt a Family Program and Distributing Dignity to name just a few.

Rebekah Circle: recently collected pajamas and books for Good Nights Pajama Program. Pajamas and books go to children in foster waiting to be adopted. We also collected paper products for the Cherry Hill Food Pantry.

Priscilla Circle: has sent coats for the Trinity Church donation and support the Mother's Matter mission this month, March. We will also go to R & M Home in April on a number of days for fellowship and to carry surprises to them. We wish Carole Warass happiness and contentment in her new home.

Missions: Trinity Presbyterian Church has a Thrift Shop, “Care 'N' Share, which has been in operation for 45 years. We are open 2 days a week and 1 Saturday a month. All the money collected goes to local missions, approximately $15,000.00 a year.

Deborah: has helped to support the Cherry Hill Food Pantry, collecting for Mother's Matter and we are now knitting caps for the next Cancer Drive for cancer patients.

Shiprah: Circle support Caring Hearts monthly and donates whatever the organization is in need of personal care items, children's games, etc.

Hannah: February 12 they went to their annual trip to R & M Boarding Home. They supported Cherry Hill Food Pantry in February and will collect for Mother's Matter in March.

Haddonfield PW

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL - Circle Friday, June 2, with your red pencil! Presbyterian Women of the First Presbyterian Church on Kings Highway in Haddonfield will be hosting a Strawberry Festival from 6:00 to 8:00 that evening. You'll be able to enjoy fresh strawberries served on delicious homemade pound cake topped with ice cream. And, the same time, you'll be entertained by a musical treat. The choir will be performing as well as smaller ensembles and soloists. Peter Leibensperger, Minister of Music, and Ted Barr, Organist, will be at the piano, all ready to present us with an evening of fun. Start June with a happy smile!

As part of Haddonfield Presbyterian Church's PW mission, memorial funds have been used to loan money to deserving women through an organization called Kiva.

Kiva is an international nonprofit organization, founded in 2005 and based in San Francisco, with a mission to connect people through lending to alleviate poverty. It has earned a 4 out of 4 star rating from Charity Navigator. Two-thirds of its operating costs are covered through voluntary donations made by Kiva lenders. The remainder of its costs are covered through grants and donations from foundations and supporters.

Since April, 2016, money has been loaned to 9 women around the world (from Ecuador, Cambodia, the Philippines, Pakistan, Paraguay, Lebanon, Peru, and Tajikistan) As the loans are repaid, the repayments are used to fund new loans, primarily to women to help them support themselves and further their education of themselves and their children.

This whole process is facilitated on Kiva's website, Kiva.org

Haddon Heights PW

Our Tuesday Morning Circle began making microloans in 2011. Since then, we have made 27 loans to women in 10 countries. Our total amount loaned has been $5900 and we have five loans currently being repaid. During that time, we've had only one loan that was not fully repaid, but they have renegotiated and we may actually be getting more repayments from them.

This note came from Kiva in early March:

"Wow. We have really big news. Our community came together in such a huge way for International Women's Day. We not only hit our goal to lend $3 million to women on Kiva in one week, but we DOUBLED it!"

In fact, yesterday was the biggest day for lending in Kiva's 11 year history! You blew through every single record in our books, all to celebrate and support women around the world.

Oh, and did we mention that every single dollar of the $1 million in matching funds was used? Honestly, we couldn't have expected such amazing results.

Thanks to you, 16,473 women around the world are one step closer to following their dreams of starting or growing a business, going to school and investing in a better future for themselves, their children and their communities. You did this, Women's Circle. Thank you." Best wishes, The Kiva team

Dress-a-Girl Workshop held last October was successful both for the fun, fellowship and the number of T-shirt dresses we were able to send to Haiti via our missionary contact in Florida.

CANCELLATION Due to scheduling conflicts, It is necessary to postpone the workshop planned for April 2017. Do watch for our next date for Dress-a-Girl in the Fall 2017.

"Dining at Friendly's" on April 25. Morning Circle will hold a Fundraising event. Everyone is welcome to visit the Westmont Friendly's Restaurant, 4-9 PM, no coupons, ads or notice required.

Moorestown PW 100th year anniversary Rummage Sale - Wednesday, March 22 from 6-9 PM. and then Thursday AM from 10-12PM For the Bag Sale. Please come and support our Missions. It's a BIG Anniversary so we hope to have even larger crowds! Thanks, Debbie Somerdale PW will be having their retreat on May 5 and 6, 2017 at the Pan Am Hotel, located on the beach in Wildwood, NJ. Our theme is "Making an Eternal Difference". Rooms are $105.00 for triple, $110.00 for double, and $130.00 for single. Cost includes Friday night's buffet dinner, breakfast and lunch on Saturday. Any questions, please call Carol Repoley 267-745-9862.

Wenonah PW continues to support the residents of a local boarding home for the mentally ill, providing Christmas gifts, stockings, home-baked cookies, and decorating their home for Christmas. We deliver Easter baskets, birthday cards, and in the summer provide a barbecue picnic on their grounds.

We support other missions as well, including our own church and Youth Group projects. One excellent local mission project that we support regularly is the Angels of God Clothing Closet in Pitman @ <https://angels of god.org/>, which is so much more than just a clothing closet and well worth looking into!

We are currently enjoying a DVD Bible Study series called "12 Women of the Bible," which we watch and discuss at each monthly meeting.
