

Free Walking Tours leave from Pacific House at 10:30am, 12:30pm and 2:00pm both days. Approximately 45 min. led by State Parks Guides, tours of Monterey's nearby historic sites include the Wharf area, Pacific House, Custom House, First Brick House, California's First Theater and Memory Garden.

Stevenson House Museum (530 Houston St.) 1:00pm—4:00pm both days. Open for guided or self-guided tours. Learn about the famous author's stay in Monterey in 1879. Free Admission!

Stevenson House Special Exhibit Doorways to History—Both Days 10am—4pm See a variety of door-themed objects plucked from collections storage, many on exhibit for the very first time.

Treasure Hunt for History Stevenson House Saturday only. — Family fun! It's a hunt for history based on Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island. Pirate costumes are encouraged! Pick up your Treasure Map Packet at 11:00 am, follow the map and return by 2:00 pm for prizes and refreshments.

Monterey Public Library (625 Pacific St.) Saturday 3:00pm. California State Park's Michael Green presents a slide program on California's First Theater. Learn how Jack Swan's "store" transformed into a theater, boarding house, souvenir shop, museum, then back to a theater. Discussion of the building's future follows.

Pacific Biological Lab (Doc Ricketts' Lab) (800 Cannery Row) Tour times; 9:00am, 10:30am, 12:30pm, 2:00pm, 3:30pm—Saturday only.

Visit our website: www.monterey.org/museums for time and space limitations.

Reservations are required: call 831-646-5640 or email museumpt@monterey.org

Monterey Peninsula Archives Crawl (Various locations). Saturday Only 10am—4pm. Take a self-guided tour of over 15 regional institutions displaying treasures from their collections. Historians and archivists share stories behind these treasures and discuss their importance. Free Event. Some sites require a passport. Register at eventbrite.com or call: Chalet Booker at 831-242-8743.

Archives Crawl Reception (Colton Hall) Saturday, 4:30pm. Adult reception. Bring completed stamped passport for special drawing. For more info: 831-242-8743 or email booker@monterey.org. Space limited. Register for reception at eventbrite.com

Cooper-Molera Adobe (Munras Ave. at Polk St.) 11am – 4pm both days. Wander through orchard and garden of this newly renovated property. Step into the past in the Cooper Adobe to see new displays, stories and activities. In Diaz Adobe view "The Element of Surprise" — works of local artists from Youth Arts Collective. Enjoy treats and coffee at Alta Bakery. We're happy to participate in the first annual Monterey Archives Crawl on Saturday.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

October 13 & 14, 2018

NOTE: 12th Annual Civil War Camp 10am—4pm ONLY ON OCT 6-7. Lower Presidio Historic Park is transformed to a living history civil war camp. Visit a tented civilian town and cannon and musket firing demonstrations at 11:30am and 2:30pm both days. For more info, visit: www.facebook.com/FortMervineCWE.

Lower Presidio Historic Park (Bldg. 113 Cpl Ewing Rd.—Enter from Pacific St. & 76th Artillery Rd.) Both days, 10am—4pm. From Spanish exploration to California statehood, newly installed interpretive panels describe the historic sites of the Park.

Presidio Museum open 10am—4pm both days
Walking Tours (Sunday only-one hour) Leave from front of Presidio Museum at 10:30 am.

Pacific House Museum (Custom House Plaza) 10am—4pm both days. Built in 1847 by former American Counsel to Mexico, Thomas O. Larkin. Today it features Monterey history from the first Rumsien people to California Statehood. Second-floor has one of the finest privately assembled Native American collections in California.

Living History Day Memory Garden (Behind Pacific House) 11am—3pm Sunday only. This beautiful garden was once a corral for livestock and the site of bull and bear contests where Montereyans wagered on the outcome. Today, experience games and crafts of Old Monterey. Bring the family for historic fun!

Custom House (Custom House Plaza at Fisherman's Wharf) 10am—4pm both days. State Historic Landmark #1 once the center of trade and government in Mexican Monterey from 1827 to 1846. Displays the type of trade goods brought to this remote capital of Alta California. Visit the Custom House Gift Shop for unique gifts and to purchase your discount tickets for Christmas in the Adobes (Dec. 7 & 8, 2018).

Colton Hall & Old Monterey Jail (570 Pacific St.) 10:00am—4:00pm both days. Tour historic Colton Hall (1849), the site of the state constitutional convention, the first public school in California and one of Monterey's most historically significant buildings. Learn the stories and issues that shaped our state's first constitution. Built in 1854 of thick granite, the jail, located at the rear of Colton Hall, was used for more than 100 years.

1849 Constitutional Convention Reenactment Colton Hall, (570 Pacific Street) – 2:00pm – 3:30pm Sunday Only. Local actors perform as California delegates debate during the bilingual convention and create the state's landmark constitution, a truly pioneering document. Celebrate the return of the performance to historic Colton Hall where these events happened. Seating is limited. Reservations required. 831- 646-5640 or museumpt@monterey.org

Royal Presidio Chapel (500 Church St.) Founded in 1770, completed in 1794. A National Historic Landmark and first building in California designed by an architect & constructed of stone. The oldest church in continuous use in California. The Heritage Center open Saturday 10am—noon; Sunday 1pm—3pm Chapel open Saturday 10am—noon; Sunday 1:30—4pm.

House of Four Winds (540 Calle Principal) 10am —4pm both days. Built in the early 1830s the adobe sports California's first weather vane, hence its name. The building has the desk that was used for the signing of California's first constitution. Owned and operated by the Monterey Civic Club.

History Fest Info
Call Colton Hall: 831-646-5640

Casa Gutierrez (590 Calle Principal) 10am—4pm both days. Special Art Exhibit: Courage and Compassion tells our shared story of the Japanese-American WWII experience and highlights the bravery, integrity, and extraordinary support of Japanese-Americans. Using images, audio and interactive elements, Courage and Compassion provides a 360° view of the WWII experience among Americans of Japanese ancestry.

Casa Serrano (412 Pacific St.) 10am—4pm both days. Built in 1843 by Florencio Serrano and family. It houses one of the largest collections of work by California artist Jo Moro. Other well-known Monterey artists are also showcased. Serrano, a teacher and mayor of Monterey, taught school here. In 1958 the adobe was purchased and restored by the Monterey History and Art Association.

Mayo Hayes O'Donnell Library (155 Van Buren St.) 11am—4pm both days. Built in 1876 as Saint James Episcopal Church. To save from demolition, the church was purchased by Monterey History & Art Association and moved to its current site in 1969. The non-circulating library has a vast collection of material about Monterey and California history. Visitors and researchers welcome. <https://mhod.weebly.com>

Old Fisherman's Wharf Sunday 1pm—5pm Celebrate our 173rd birthday! Cake cutting at 3:30 pm Sun. at Wharf entrance. FREE cake. First slice cut by Mayor Clyde Roberson. Photo op with a Princess, strolling stilt walker, prize drawings and specials from Wharf merchants. Recalling Bouchard's 1818 occupation of Monterey, come in pirate costume to take selfies with pirate statues on the Wharf. Music by The Money Band 1-4pm. Local David Marzetti is Master of Ceremonies. Free one-hour Wharf Walk with historian Tim Thomas. Cooking demo by Tene Shake. Monterey PD, Fire Dept. and Hidden Heroes on hand. Details at montereywharf.com.