

Heather R. McClean Bio

Heather R. McClean is Director of Gift Planning, Gift Policy, and Global Engagement Liaison in the Office of Gift Planning at the University of Chicago. Since joining the department in 2004, Ms. McClean has worked with major and principal gift level donors and their advisers on complex giving techniques, including planned, outright and estate gifts for the benefit of various schools, units, and divisions at the University. In addition to her work in planned giving, Ms. McClean provides advice on gift acceptance policies for Alumni Relations and Development, and serves as the point-person for issues related to international giving and the structure of the University's foreign giving vehicles. Prior to working at the University, Ms. McClean was an associate at Baker & McKenzie, LLP with a focus on acquisitions and project finance. She is a graduate of Vassar College and Northwestern University School of Law.
