

Foster professional growth in charitable gift planning

Customized “career stage” and “employer type” programming	deliver exceptional seminar and learning experiences	Intentional high quality networking “lasting relationships”
-----------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------

Attract and retain new members

Deliver exceptional seminar and learning experiences	Intentional high quality networking “lasting relationships”	Customized “career stage” and “employer type” programming	Accessible, high value, low cost
------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------

Mission

The mission of the Planned Giving Council of Eastern Wisconsin is to foster the professional growth of individuals involved in charitable gift planning or fund development by providing education, networking and other resources.”

Increase sponsorship and other revenue

Provide higher attended seminars and access to membership	Deliver exceptional learning experiences
-----------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------

Increase capacity of board and committees

Utilize task force for project based initiatives	Recruit and orientate new committee and task force members
--------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------