

Katrina M. Pipasts is a Senior Vice President and Planned Giving Manager with Northern Trust's Foundation & Institutional Advisors practice. She is responsible for client servicing, gift administration and execution of investment strategies for institutional planned giving assets. Katrina also manages the investment portfolios for Northern Trust's Donor Advised Fund program.

Prior to her current position, Katrina was a Senior Equity Index Portfolio Manager with Northern Trust Global Investments overseeing a team of portfolio managers managing pension, foundation and endowment assets in customized equity portfolios, tax advantaged portfolios and cash overlay products. Prior to joining Northern Trust, Katrina worked as a Fund Accountant and Equity Index Portfolio Manager at ANB Investment Management & Trust Company. She managed and traded SmallCap and International equity portfolios, as well as launched a proprietary Socially Responsible S&P500 Index Fund and a proprietary Emerging Markets Index Fund.

Katrina received her B.S. degree in mathematics and statistics from the University of Western Ontario in London, Canada. She has a B.B.A. in accountancy from Western Michigan University. Katrina currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Chicago Council on Planned Giving as Treasurer. She is an active member of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning, the American Council on Gift Annuities and the Advancement Advisory Council at Robert Morris University. Additionally, Katrina is a Volunteer Tax Preparer at the Center for Economic Progress. She has been in volunteer leadership positions at the Park Ridge Juniors Foundation, Brickton Montessori School and the Latvian Center Garezers.

Currently, Katrina is pursuing her Certified Specialist in Planned Giving designation at the American Institute for Philanthropic Studies at California State University Long Beach.