About Realities for Children Boulder County

Realities For Children Boulder County (RFCBC) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving the needs of abused, neglected and vulnerable youth of Boulder County. We also offer an avenue for local businesses to get involved through business memberships, event sponsorships and scholarship support.

RFCBC offers:

- College Scholarships – Our Triumph Scholarships are awarded to former foster/kinship care youth enabling them to achieve their dream of attending college and helping to break the cycle of poverty. We also award full, four-year degree scholarships to CU in partnership with corporate sponsors and the CU Guardian Scholars program.
- Polaris House – Transitional living program for youth who have aged out of foster care.
- Emergency Fund – Financial assistance to youth in crisis.
- Hero Awards – Annual awards program recognizing those who work on behalf of abused or neglected youth.

Thanks to our business members, 100% of community contributions goes directly to assist children in need. Visit www.rfcbc.org to learn more.

Hero Awards Luncheon

April 26, 2018

11:00AM - 1:00PM

Boulder JCC (Jewish Community Center)

6007 Oreg Avenue | Boulder

This annual event recognizes those providing direct service to abused and/or neglected youth in our community. We also provide a “Beyond Business” Award to a local company and a “Policy Leadership” award. In addition, Realities for Children distributes college scholarships to youth who have overcome significant adversity. The event attracts 250 working professionals.

In partnership with the CU Guardian Scholars Program, RFCBC also awards full undergraduate degree scholarships to the University of Colorado for foster care youth (each scholarship has a value of $100,000+). These scholarships are underwritten by generous corporate sponsors.
