

alzheimer's association®

THE BRAINS BEHIND SAVING YOURS.®

*You are cordially invited to the Alzheimer's Association
Brian R. Ott M.D. Annual Research Symposium*

Eating, Drinking and other strategies to prevent Alzheimer's Disease

Understand current preventive strategies, new therapeutic options, including role of antioxidants, lifestyle factors and reduction of inflammation along with the current statistics, risk factors and definition of Alzheimer's disease.

Our Guest Speaker

Paula Grammas, PhD

Paula Grammas PhD, inaugural director of The George & Anne Ryan Institute for Neuroscience and the Thomas M. Ryan Professor of Neuroscience at URI. Dr. Grammas is best known for her pioneering research into the role that blood vessels and inflammation play in the development of diseases, including Alzheimer's and other neurodegenerative diseases. She is the recipient of the Zenith Award from the Alzheimer's Association in recognition of her accomplishments as one of the nation's leading researchers on Alzheimer's disease.

Thursday, November 3, 2016
Rhode Island Convention Center
Providence, RI

5:30 Reception and cash bar 6pm Presentation

Free parking available in the Convention Center parking garage

This activity has been submitted for approval by the Northeast Multi-State Division (NE-MSD) Continuation Education Credits. Northeast Multistate Division (NE-MSD) is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

This activity has been submitted for approval by NASW RI for Continuing Education Credits

Contact the RI Chapter office to register at 1-800-272-3900 or mలాfrance@alz.org