We need volunteers!

Please consider volunteering an hour or two of your time at the book fair. It's a great opportunity for you to meet and socialize with other parents, help children find just the right book, and even do some shopping! You can sign up at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70a044cabad22a20-scholastic6>

Special Events

- Monday morning is Donuts with Dads from 7:20-7:45 am. Dads bring those kids for a time to shop and have a donut.
- Wednesday night is Family Night from 6:00-8:00 pm. Bring the whole family for a night of fun and a chance to win prizes!
- Friday is Grandparents Day. Come have lunch with your grandchild and shop the fair.

eWallet

Concerned your child might lose the money you sent for the book fair? Want to limit your child's purchases to just books? No cash at home? The answer to all these questions is Scholastic eWallet! eWallet gives students a secure, cash-free way to shop the fair. There is no charge to set up an eWallet. Parents simply create an account and authorize a spending limit on their credit card. Parents can even add a note to limit purchases to books only. To set up your child's account, go to <http://scholastic.com/bf/oakridgecolts>.

Key Features

- Secure way to give kids money to buy books
- Pre-authorized amount to control spending
- Funds immediately available for use

Purchasers must create an eWallet for each student; accounts cannot be shared or transferred. A preauthorization charge will appear on the credit card in the amount selected as the spending limit. Additional funds can be added to the eWallet at any time. Parents will only be charged for what is purchased (up to the spending limit they selected). The preauthorized amount will expire after the last day of the book fair. Student eWallets can be scanned or looked up at the book fair using the student's grade, teacher, or name; eWallets do not have to be printed or presented to a cashier.
