

Living our Christian Beliefs (Wesleyan Heritage)

Required Advanced Lay Speaking Class

We will discover the place of doctrine in relation to the missional movement known as Methodism. An understanding of Wesleyan theology will be developed and its influence on the practical structure and disciplines for the first Methodists will be determined. A knowledge of Methodist History and the formation of other Methodist denominations will be studied, The Wesleyan understanding of grace and how grace leads to the holiness of the heart and life will be explored.
