School Grant Opportunities

Looking for a grant opportunity to bring new resources into your classroom or school community? Here are several upcoming application opportunities.

Freedom Foundation Graduate Class Scholarships

<http://www.freedomfoundation.org/Graduate-Classes>

Scholarships for on-campus graduate class programs in social studies topics are valued at $1,400 per teacher, while traveling workshop programs are valued at $1,550 per teacher. They are available on a first-come first-serve basis. Opening October 1, 2017.

Learning Gardens

<https://thekitchencommunity.org/apply/>

The application deadline to be considered to receive a garden from The Kitchen Community this spring is December 7! If you apply after December 7, you will be considered for next school year. TKC is working in conjunction with SCS's CNC to encourage all high schools to apply! Plus, this can be used in our Environmental Science and Nutrition classes. Deadline: December 7, 2017.

Youth Garden Grant

<https://kidsgardening.org/2018-youth-garden-grant/>

The Youth Garden Grant is designed to support school and youth educational garden projects that enhance the quality of life for students and their communities. Any nonprofit organization, public or private school, or youth program in the U.S. planning a new garden program or expanding an established one that serves at least 15 youth between the ages of three and 18 is eligible to apply. The selection of winners is based on demonstrated program impact and sustainability. The top five programs will each receive an award package of a $1,000 cash prize, $100 Gardener's Supply Company Gift Certificate, and a variety of gardening tools and supplies. Deadline: December 8, 2017.

Technology Teacher Grant

<https://fios.verizon.com/beacon/technology-teacher-grant/>

Share your tech-focused lesson plan with us, and you could win up to $1,000 for classroom supplies, educational subscriptions and apps for your students. Deadline: December 9, 2017.

Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching

<https://www.fulbrightteacherexchange.org/application>

The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching (DA) Program provides funding for highly accomplished U.S. primary and secondary level educators to take part in an intensive professional development program for three to six months abroad. The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and is administered by the Institute of International Education (IIE). Deadline: December 13, 2017.

Colonial Williamsburg Teacher Institute Scholarships

<http://www.history.org/History/teaching/TIScholarships.cfm>

During six-day sessions on location in Colonial Williamsburg and the surrounding area, 25 participants and a Master Teacher engage in an interdisciplinary approach to teaching social studies with American history as the focus. Teachers have the opportunity to exchange ideas with historians, meet character interpreters, participate in simulations, and become part of the story. Throughout each day, teachers work collaboratively with Colonial Williamsburg staff and a Master Teacher to examine interactive teaching techniques and develop instructional materials that bring history to life in the classroom. Each teacher scholarship covers admission to all program activities; room (double occupancy) and all meals except two evenings on your own; $100 Colonial Williamsburg gift card for educational materials; and teacher resource materials. Most scholarships include full air transportation to Williamsburg. Travel arrangements will be confirmed at the time of scholarship acceptance. Jean Murchison of Raleigh-Bartlett Meadows Elementary is a past scholarship recipient. Deadline: December 15, 2017.

Follett Challenge

<https://follettchallenge.com/>

Tell Follett how your program engages students in your library or classroom when you write your online application. Then, prepare a 3-5 minute video promoting your program, and submit it. Voting will take place in January. Three Semi-finalists and a Grand Prize winner will be chosen, as well as ten People's Choice winners based on the highest number of votes received. A total of $200,000 will be awarded. Deadline: December 15, 2017.

National Science Teacher Association Awards

<http://www.nsta.org/about/awards.aspx>

Nineteen separate award programs are available. Deadline: December 15, 2017.

Shell Science Lab Challenge

<http://www.nsta.org/shellscienclab/>

Shell and the National Science Teachers Association (NSTA) have partnered to recognize outstanding middle and high school programs for their exemplary approaches to science lab instruction utilizing limited school and laboratory resources. The Shell Science Lab Challenge will showcase the work of teachers in Grades 6-12, representing their schools, who submit innovative, replicable strategies to deliver quality lab experiences with limited equipment/resources, and award teachers/schools with additional tools, resources, and rich professional development opportunities needed to support high-quality science teaching and strengthen their existing capabilities. Awards range from $3,000 to $20,000 in value. Deadline: December 15, 2017.

SCS Arts Education Transportation Access Grants

Through support from the Chief of Staff Brian Stockton and the C&I Department, there is availability this year to provide transportation access grants to arts education experiences through Durham School Services. To qualify, the experiences should be curricular extensions of the arts instruction and be coordinated by your arts education team. To request bus funds, email davisonpd@scsk12.org to receive a copy of the application. Deadline: December 18, 2017.

The Kennedy Center/Stephen Sondheim Inspirational Teacher Awards

<http://education.kennedy-center.org/education/sondheim/>

To celebrate the significant role of teachers in society, The Kennedy Center/Stephen Sondheim Inspirational Teacher Awards ($10,000) spotlight some of the country's most inspirational teachers and recognize them for their contributions. Nominators must be former students who are 18 years or older and who no longer attend the teacher's school. Deadline: December 31, 2017.

EarthWatch Teach Earth Teacher Fellowships

<http://earthwatch.org/education/teacher-fellowships/teach-earth-united-states>

Earthwatch receives between 200-300 Teach Earth USA Fellowship applications each year for about 50 fellowships. An awarded fellowship would cover the full cost of your assigned summer expedition, including meals, accommodations, and on-site transportation. Educator fellowships also provide a travel award to offset out-of-pocket travel expenses to and from the expedition site. Deadline: January 8, 2018.

Roller Skating Foundation Grants

<http://www.rollerskating.com/pages/grants/70>

The Roller Skating Foundation makes grants, ranging from $250 and up, to schools, educators and volunteers to accomplish educational objectives and fitness-related goals. Priority will be given to projects directed towards roller skating, including field trips to roller skating centers, as well as innovative projects designed to improve physical fitness or education. Deadline: January 10, 2018.

Teaching Tolerance Educator Grants, ranging from $500-$10,000, support school-level, classroom-level, and district-level projects that promote affirming school climates and educate youth to thrive in a diverse democracy. At the school and district levels, leadership teams use the grants to improve school climate, reduce hate, support culturally responsive practices and implement anti-bias curricula. At the classroom level, teachers use the grants to fund programming that promotes empathy and kindness, positive identity development, perspective taking, critical thinking about injustice and collective action. Deadline: Rolling.

Opportunities for Students

Generation Beyond Video Challenge

<https://www.generationbeyondinschool.com/challenge>

This challenge from Lockheed Martin and Discovery Education asks individuals or teams of middle school students to create 1-2 minute videos explaining how they would design a living module on Mars. Accompanying curriculum and lesson plans are available online, as well as FAQs, competition rules, and other information. One grand prize winning team or individual will win a $10,000 prize. Second place receives $5,000, and third place receives $2,500. Deadline: December 14, 2017.

Angela Award

<http://www.nsta.org/docs/awards/Angela.pdf>

This award honors one female student in grades 5–8, who is involved in or has a strong connection to science. The award has been established in honor of Gerry Wheeler, Executive Director Emeritus, and his outstanding dedication to NSTA and lifelong commitment to science education. The award is a $1,000 US EE Savings Bond. The awardee will be honored at the Teacher Awards Banquet at NSTA's National Conference. Deadline: December 15, 2017.

Apprentice Ecologist Scholarships

http://www.wildernessproject.org/volunteer\_apprentice\_ecologist.php

The Apprentice Ecologist Initiative seeks to engage middle and high school students in environmental stewardship projects. Students ages 13-21 are invited to conduct a local environmental stewardship project, take digital photos of the project in action, and write an essay about the project and what it meant to them. Three scholarships totaling $1,750 will be awarded to the authors of the top three essays. School and community groups, especially those working with at-risk and disadvantaged youth, are highly encouraged to participate. Deadline: December 31, 2017.

MPLOY Youth Summer Experience and Memphis Ambassador Program

<http://cityofmemphisyouth.org/moys/helpful-tips-for-applying/>

Students aged 14 to 22 are invited to apply for one of two paid city opportunities – either the MPLOY Youth Service Experience or the Memphis Ambassador Program. All CTE students are encouraged to apply for MPLOY. ID requirements may be difficult for some students to meet, so advance review of the application is strongly recommended. After the application period there will be a computer-generated lottery that randomly ranks the students for possible participation. Students will be invited to participate based on their lottery ranking. Deadline: December 31, 2017.

Karma for Cara Microgrants

<http://karmaforcara.org/get-involved/apply-for-a-microgrant/>

Know a student who's looking to get a volunteerism project off the ground? The Karma for Cara Foundation can help. Launched in 2014, the foundation's minigrant program offers small, one-time grants to students to help jump-start or sustain community service projects. A range of projects qualify for funding ($250 to $1,000), including examples like rebuilding a school playground, or helping senior citizens prepare their homes for winter. Deadlines: January 1, 2018, April 1, 2018, July 1, 2018, and October 1, 2018.

SYTA Youth Foundation Road Scholarship

<http://sytayouthfoundation.org/road-scholarship>

The SYTA Youth Foundation established the Road Scholarship program in 2002 to award funds to youth who, for various reasons, are unable to afford the cost of their group's travel. Based on the belief that travel is essential to a complete education, it is the SYTA Youth Foundation's goal to make a positive difference, through travel, in the young lives of our global citizens. Since its inception, the SYTA Youth Foundation has awarded over a thousand scholarships to deserving youth. Scholarships are awarded based on the applicant's circumstances and need as documented in the completed application form. The scholarship amount varies on a case-by-case basis, depending on the cost of specific trips, the demonstrated need of the applicant, and the number of applicants in a given application period. The average Road Scholarship granted is $750. No more than $1,000 will be awarded to a single student. Deadline: March 16, 2018.

Everyday Young Heroes

<http://ysa.org/awards/eyh/>

Everyday Young Heroes are young people, ages 5-25, who are improving their communities through service to others and making significant progress in achieving the UN's Sustainable Development Goals \(SDGs\). Each week, the YSA Team selects one young person to receive this honor and receive a $250 grant. Rolling.

WaysToHelp.org Grants

<http://waystohelp.org/grants.php>

WaysToHelp.org invites teens in the United States to apply for grants to fund their community service ideas across any one of 16 issue areas. Applications are short - just 5,000 characters or less - and should summarize: how the project will involve others, who it will help, what effect it's expected to have, when it will start and how the funds will be used. Grant requests are reviewed and responded to on a monthly basis. No set deadline.

Write the World

https://writetheworld.com/for\_young\_writers#competitions\_anchor

Encourage your grades 7–8 students to write pieces in a wide variety of genres, from songwriting and flash fiction to mystery writing and sports journalism. Write the World holds monthly competitions for budding writers. Participants can enter for a chance to win up to $100, inclusion on the program blog, and feedback from a team of writing experts.
