Tabitha Walter [1:35 p.m. – 2:10 p.m.] is the Washington, D.C. Executive Director for Eagle Forum. Tabitha is a graduate of Marshall University. She earned a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education, as well as graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Master's degree in Political Science. During her graduate studies, Tabitha worked with the West Virginia State Legislature in the House Education Committee. Afterward, she worked on disability law with West Virginia Advocates. Recently, she spent time working with Family Research Council where she handled issues of sexual risk avoidance, education, anti-human trafficking, and anti-marijuana policies. She will be speaking on “How Congress Affects California and How to Let Your Voice be Heard in Washington D.C.”

Craig Huey [2:10 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.] is a nationally recognized political commentator and marketing consultant. He has appeared on national news outlets such as Fox News. Craig is also a frequent radio talk-show guest-speaker on KFI, KKLA, KBRT, KRLA, KWVE & KABC. He puts out one of the best voter guides for upcoming elections. Craig will be speaking on “How Illegal Immigration is Affecting Voter Fraud and is Furthered by the Deep State.”

Ruth Weiss [2:45 p.m. – 3:20 p.m.] Because California controls one fifth of the Electoral College votes required to win the presidency, the return of integrity to California's electoral system is crucial for the restoration of a Constitutional Republic. The orchestrated corruption and fraud being used to destroy election integrity in California is a blueprint of action poised to be employed against every state in the nation. Exposing it will necessarily bring down the “media blackout curtain” and cause a journalistic firestorm of investigation across the nation. Ruth Weiss, statewide Director of Education and Training for Election Integrity Project (EIP) will speak on the “Evidence of Voter Fraud in the Past that has Cost Many of our Candidates their Elections.”

Afternoon Break: [Time: 3:20 – 3:35]
