

KIVA Institute, LLC and Little Priest Tribal College Offer Training Opportunities

Training Courses:

The KIVA Institute, LLC and Winnebago Tribe's Little Priest Tribal College proudly announce a partnership to provide training for tribal nations, tribal organizations, non-profit organizations and federal service providers.

KIVA Institute will provide the following training:

- Indian Self-Determination Act: Law & Administration; October 23-25, 2017
The most comprehensive training available anywhere in Indian Country on the Indian Self-Determination Act. Everything you ever needed to know about the Indian Self-Determination Act. Agreements under the Indian Self-Determination Act are Government-to-Government agreements, not federal procurement contracts. Learn from the national expert on the Indian Self-Determination Act.
- Indirect Cost Principles: Contract Support Costs; October 26-27, 2017
Indian Self-Determination Act requires the federal government to provide full funding for tribal indirect costs. Learn about Contract Support Costs, Direct Contract Support Cost, Start-Up & Pre-Award Costs. Learn how indirect cost rates work. Learn about indirect cost policies of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Indian Health Service.
- Tribal Council and Board Member Roles & Responsibilities; November 28-29, 2017
Tribal council members and board of directors will receive training on their overarching responsibilities, Indian law, constitutional principles, separation of powers doctrine, tribal sovereignty, legal basics and implications, leadership and supervision, budget formulation and execution, and conflict resolution.
- Robert's Rules of Order; November 30, 2017
Learn how to conduct meetings using parliamentary procedures, managing conflicts and avoiding chaos, proper use of executive meetings; seven fundamental motions used in meetings; mock tribal/board meetings. Learn from the expert parliamentarian.
