SEPTEMBER 25-28

DINNER GUEST SPEAKER WORSHIP KIDS ACTIVITIES

- Sunday Morning Connect Group Attendance Goal - 1,200+
- Sunday Evening Picnic and Service at Hot Springs Farmers Market, 5-7 pm
  - Baptisms in Hot Springs Creek
  - Bring lawn chairs. More details on page 2.
- Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, enjoy dinner on us beginning at 5 pm.
- Sing in Proclaim choir each night at 6 pm.
- Services begin each night at 6:30.
- Invite the friends you've made through More Than a Face.
- Pray that God will have freedom to change lives!

We've been praying for a few months, and now it's here: PROCLAIM. I'm convinced more than ever that God has something in store for us in those services, September 25-28. Here's why? Our preacher had to have some emergency knee surgery. Things were worse than expected. He has to stay off his feet for two weeks and had to cancel preaching at our services. (Please pray that Clay will get on his feet soon.) The only one who was not caught off-guard by this is God. He has a plan and He is working His plan. Pray with more fervency for God to move. Clear your calendar so you can be present. Invite others. And let's see what God does.

We are excited to welcome Robby Tingle as our new speaker! Robby serves on the Executive & Administrative team at the Arkansas Baptist State Convention. Robby has had a long and fruitful career in ministry, and has a passion for global missions and evangelism. Mark Maier, from FBC—Rogers, will lead worship, and Craig Smith, from Webb City Baptist Church—Ozark (formerly our Youth Pastor), will lead children's worship during the revival services. Pray for them too.

Oh, and one more thing: not only are we baptizing in Hot Springs Creek at our Sunday evening service at Farmer's Market, but we will baptize any and every service of the revival. So if you're waiting to be baptized, which day will work best for you? Please call Pam at 624-3345 and we'll follow up. Thanks. See you Sunday.

Your Pastor,
John

Education & Outreach Ministry

Each group has set a reachable goal and we have compiled them here by age groups.
Preschool	188
Children	128
Youth	127
Singles & Young Adults	165
Median Adults	300
Senior Adults	317
General Officers	11
Total Goal:	1,236

Parking Help

We are expecting a big crowd Sunday. AND WE HAVE HEARD THAT PEOPLE HAVE DRIVEN OFF BEFORE, BECAUSE THEY CAN'T FIND A SPOT! SO HERE IS HOW YOU CAN HELP:

1. Carpool Families,

2. Don't take Guest spots!

3. Respect handicapped spots. (especially if you don't need them any longer).

4. If you are having a hard time finding a spot, our Safety Team Guys with the orange vests will help you find one!

5. Consider Remote Parking. See below.

Remote Parking Starts This Sunday!

We anticipate the ground work for our new parking lot will begin on the “Back 40 – Grassy Lot” this week. So, since we have been maxing our parking on site, we need to do remote parking as before. We will probably only have to do it for a few weeks. This is even more important since we have heard people have driven off recently since they couldn't find a parking spot.

So, starting Sunday 30 minutes before the first service, from 8:30-9am and after Connect Groups and the 2nd service 11:30-Noon, we have drivers who will use a church van to give people rides to and from our remote parking locations. Several businesses located just 2½ blocks from the church at 301 & 316 St. Louis have given permission for us to park on their lots. The Shuttle Van will run a continuous loop between the lots and our church. Please just come and help us out!

Extra Safety Teams for Proclaim

We need People for extra times: This Sunday through Tuesday: 5-8pm & Regular Wednesday shifts shorten to: 4:30-6 and 6-7:30pm. Call or respond to the email to Brad Phillips or Bobby King. Thanks!

Ride Needed

One of our church members, Kim Bailey, needs a ride to church from the mobile home village on Hwy. 7 South by the waterfall. If you live in that vicinity and would be willing to consider it, please give me a call at 276-3346. Thanks!

Love, Danny
