FBC 101 is a great opportunity for new members and prospective members to learn who First Baptist Church is, where we've come from, what we believe, what we value, how we function, and where we're going.

In this special church-wide version of the class, ALL church members—especially ministry LEADERS—can understand more about the culture and vision of our church. Deacons, Connect Group leaders, men's and women's ministry leaders, choir and orchestra members, mission team members, and any kind of servant leader can become more effective in their role when they understand how our church fits together and accomplishes its mission.

Teenagers and older children will enjoy this experience as well. Childcare is available for younger children. After the session you can take a tour of our facilities if you would like.

Pastor's Message

Thanks for the opportunity to be a part of our second group of FBC men going through a Men of the Ouachitas retreat. We are taking a serious look at the possibility of becoming our own chapter of this group. Men of the Ouachitas originated in the heart of a local Christian counselor, Bruce Dodson. Bruce is an elder at Lake Valley Community Church so that congregation developed this retreat concept. Please be in prayer as seek the Lord's leadership in next steps for us. Serious transformation has come to a number of me who have participated in this retreat. And transformation is what Jesus wants to do in all of us.

It's that time of year when we receive or Dixie Jackson Offering for State Missions. This is an annual offering designed to undergird disaster relief, church planting, and some social ministries through Arkansas Baptists. This is not the same as the disaster relief offering we've received since the hurricanes hit. Please pray about what God would have you do to impact Arkansas with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

We begin a fall sermon series this Sunday. We'll be working our way through the book of James. The series is entitled This Is the Life. James provides a very practical description of what a Christian life looks like. We can't cover every text, but we will cover most of them. I hope you'll be reading through James on your own, selecting a memory verse of two from each chapter, and journaling your insights. James could impact your life in large ways. This Sunday we'll consider that strange imperative in James 1:2 "Consider it a great joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you experience various trials." Huh? Joy? Let's explore that text this Sunday. See you then.

Your Pastor,
John
