Pastor's Message

In light of the social media political outburst in the last week or two, let me share my post in response to all of the harsh diatribes and unfriending from both sides:

"Here's my radical political post: no matter your politics, if you're my friend, you're still my friend." This is America. We don't and won't all agree on politics. Let's not let that get in the way of friendship. Thank you that you don't bring polarizing attitudes with you to church. We're on the same team and the same mission here. I'm praying every bit as much for spiritual revival in America now as I've been praying for the last few years. Join me in loving each other and praying for revival.

Can I just give a quick shout out and thank you to the women who are part of the Rise Ministry to our homebound? Your love and ministry to these people makes a huge impact. Almost every time I am in contact with one of our homebound I hear about your ministry and the blessing you are to these people. It's kind of a thankless job and it's nitty-gritty ministry. But the homebound matter, you matter, and your ministry matters. Thank you!!

As we continue Reboot 2017 this Sunday, our focus will be on rebooting our work. We spend so much time working for a living that it's easy to get bored or go on autopilot, sort of disengage. What if we worked for a higher purpose than a paycheck? What might that purpose be? Let's talk about this Sunday. See you there.

Your Pastor,
John

Every Monday, 1 lady who serves on the homebound Altar flower delivery team delivers the Sunday altar flowers to 2 homebound. You would do this once a month to an assigned homebound. Short delivery and visit. You come to the church and pick up the flowers and a homemade treat baked by the Heavenly Baker, Lisa Caple. Time of day is up to you but usually after lunch for most homebound. Contact Jennifer Hamner 501.622.9418 or Kate Hamner 501.762.5229
