Our first week of Upward practices is well under way! Monday night we had 8 teams of players tip off our season. Some of the players were understandably a little nervous, others were excited, some were both. We'll have another ten teams this Thursday and Saturday. Our first game day is just 2 weeks away and we still need a few more volunteers as noted below:

- Referees: 9 required/4 vacancies (volunteers to officiate in either Kindergarten or 1st-2nd grade divisions. Training is Saturday, January 21, 9:00 am.)
- Concession Stand Helpers: 12 required/8 vacancies (volunteers to serve from the concession stand; serve 2-3 hours)
- Greeters: You can show the love of Christ and make a positive connection with FBC by merely making yourself available to welcome players, parents and other fans to our games.
- Prayer partners: Use a daily prayer guide to pray for the players, families, and all the volunteers throughout the season. Prayer guides are available at the Fitness/Rec Ministry HQ and online at www.fbcrecreation.com.

See Wallace, Blake or Ashley Buttrum, or Julie Smith for more information or to sign up ASAP!

After a great season of Advent and Christmas, it was good to get our schedule back to normal on Sunday. Connect Groups fired up again and this Wednesday, all of that fires back up too. On Wednesday evenings at 4:00 and 6:00 in the Fellowship Hall, I'll be leading a study of Ephesians. It's been a while since we've studied one of Paul's letters. We've spent the last three or so years studying Mark, Ecclesiastes, John's letters, Jude, and Jeremiah. It's time to learn from Paul in his very general letter of Ephesians. So I'll be leading that study. Of course, children, youth, and other adult options will be available. Could I suggest some of you consider joining the choir? Classic choir rehearses at 6:00. The choir has been growing, and maybe you are the next to help lead worship in the classic service. Anyway, check the schedule and find a place on Wednesday night. First Baptist is the place to be on Wednesday night.

Could I raise your antennas toward those who visit church on Sunday? The first of the year often brings a number of visitors our way. I met several on Sunday. Can I count on you to introduce yourself to someone you don't know who sits near you? Let's take the first step toward our guests. Ask if you could help them in any way? If they've come to the Classic Service, offer to take them to the Welcome Center when worship is over so they could visit a Connect Group. They may choose not to do that on a first visit, but don't let that be because they weren't invited. I love it when some of you bring people to me after the service that you met during the service. So reach out to our guests. You may just find a new friend in the exchange.

We're excited to get the 16th season of Upward Basketball going. Due to changes in children's basketball options over the years, Upward has evolved. Our current focus is younger children. We still need a handful of volunteers for game days. This is a short term commitment that blesses children and their families from the church and the community. Can you help? Contact Wallace in the church office for more information.

As we continue Reboot 2017, this Sunday we'll be thinking together about rebooting our finances. We'll consider some of what God says about financial resources and how to steward them. See you then.

Your Pastor,
John
