

The James Monroe Museum

January 2018 Events!

Friday, January 5, 6:00-8:00 PM Winter Fireside Songs & Tales with Eve Watters

Enjoy an all-ages evening of traditional Virginia stories, music, games, and riddles, with harp, dulcimer, and pennywhistle. Musician and storyteller Eve Watters offers charming examples of the music, songs, stories, and other domestic amusements of the era.

Saturday, January 6, 10:00-11:30 AM The Monroe Cipher

Learn how to write your own coded messages! Heidi Stello, Editorial Assistant for The Papers of James Monroe, shares the secrets of The Monroe Cipher and discusses how ciphers were an essential element of diplomacy in Monroe's time.

Both events are free and family-friendly.
