

My name is Jim Bretthauer and I am the DCE at Prince of Peace in Medina, Ohio. I have been asked to lead the Youth Delegate leadership team and can give clarity to your questions.

The vision for the Youth Delegates is very mission minded. This includes opportunities to fellowship with fellow Lutherans, serve the greater Ann Arbor area, and learn how we can live boldly and bravely by loving your neighbor as yourself. This is done through the tentative schedule as you will see below.

Cost- There is no cost to the Youth Delegate. If traveling by other means than authorized travel from English District. Cost will be on the responsibility of parents. Delegate should be traveling with Pastor and/or Lay Delegate from congregation.

Students will be exposed to convention but not all of convention. They will be serving the greater Ann Arbor area, spending time getting to know the other youth from the English District, involved in fun activities at and around Ann Arbor, and developing a devotion to share Thursday morning at convention.

Please do not hesitate to respond to me with any further questions.

Blessings,
