LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

University & Regional Efforts with Campus Assaults
Elizabeth Rosemeyer, JD
Title IX Coordinator
Point Park University

1. An overview of University resources available to students—what’s legally required and what are some best practices.
2. Regional Efforts (through PCHE and organic collaborations) to prevent and respond effectively to college and university students
3. Case studies, with some highlights about how the same fact pattern may play out differently when different students with different needs are involved.

Collaborative Response to Survivors

Julie Evans, MSW
Director of Prevention and Victim Response
Pittsburgh Action Against Rape

1. Enhanced understanding of local efforts in coordinating a collaborative response to survivors of sexual violence and preventing sexual violence on campuses
2. Increased awareness and information to connect survivors to local services
3. Increase awareness and connection to resources and programs for prevention within college communities

Forensics and Sexual Assaults

Deb Shane MSN, RN, SANE-A
Clinician, Forensic Coordinator
Department of Emergency Medicine
UPMC Mercy

1. Discuss the forensic aspect of sexual assault
2. Discuss the role of the SANE nurse in patient care and follow up
3. Increase awareness of UPMC resources regarding sexual assault and domestic violence
