

BOOK LAUNCH

Politics of the Pantry

Housewives, Food, and Consumer Protest in Twentieth-Century America

FEATURING THE AUTHOR

Emily E. LB. Twarog, PhD

Assistant Professor, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Please join us for a conversation with the author and women interviewed for the book including LYNNE HEIDT, Evanston realtor and former leader of the National Consumers' Union; JACKIE KENDALL, Democracy Partners; JANICE SCHAKOWSKY, U.S. Representative (Invited); and BONNIE WILSON, Vice Chair of the Frances Willard Historical Association and former Evanston Township Assessor.

Saturday, November 18, 2017 • 1-3 PM

Loyola University Chicago • Piper Hall • 970 W. Sheridan Rd. • Chicago, IL

Courtesy of the Walter Reuther Archives, Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan

Sponsored by Chicago Coalition for Labor Union Women (CLUW) • Chicago Women's History Center • Illinois Labor History Society • University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, School of Labor and Employment, Labor Education Program • Women and Leadership Archives, Loyola University Chicago • Working Women's History Project