ARCTIC POLICY INTERNSHIP ON CAPITOL HILL

WASHINGTON, DC – North Star Group (NSG) is offering a summer internship that requires high competency in writing and research with special interest in Arctic policy in our Capitol Hill office.

Arctic policy includes a wide variety of issues including, but not limited to:

- Climate change and environment
- Commercial and subsistence fisheries
- Transportation infrastructure
- U.S. Coast Guard
- National security and foreign relations
- Indigenous Peoples
- Arctic Council
- Telecommunications
- Natural resource extraction
- Renewable energy
- Economic development

NSG produces a semi-monthly report on Arctic policy for subscribers who want to stay on beat with Arctic dialogue in DC. The intern would help with notetaking for hearings and other business meetings to be included in the subscription product.

Duties would include, but are not limited to:

- Attending hearings, meetings, events on the above policy arenas
- Help write/edit articles, conduct research to help support subscription service
- Maintain calendar of events
- Compile contact lists of key players in the Arctic policy arena
- Help expand our subscription outreach
- Monitor local and national news
- Assist with social media outreach
- Other administrative and research tasks as determined by supervisors.

Our office is located across the street from the Hart Senate Office Building on historical Capitol Hill, brings you close to the action. Alaska ties are a plus, but ALL are encouraged to apply.

A negotiated stipend will be provided. The three-month summer internship will commence on June 1, based on the successful applicant's school schedule.

Please submit cover letter and resume by Friday, March 31, 6pm EST to Veronica Slajer at vaslajer@northstargrp.com, or call (202) 544-6355 or e-mail for more information.
