Matt Bellace Opening Keynote

This powerful and entertaining presentation focuses on natural highs, emotional resilience and mental health. It has been described as the perfect combination of stand-up comedy, interactive demonstrations and inspirational stories. Matt empowers students to be leaders in their lives and make changes in their environment. During the program, he also shares his own story of student prevention leadership, as the founder of a nationally recognized student group at Bucknell University.

Jon Breeden Closing Keynote

My life was challenging growing up fatherless and in poverty. I almost allowed the pain to lead me down the wrong path but, I began to learn success principles. These principles challenged my thinking and habits. Without them, I would not be where I am today.

It does not matter where you are in life, there is always room for improvement. This course serves as education and coaching for a successful life. You will be encouraged to do more, be more, and have more in your life.

Opening Keynote Sunhjay Nath

Sunjay Nath Travels globally sharing insights on leadership and performance. He is best known for his trademark, "The 10-80-10 Principle" which is a framework that helps individuals and teams improve performance. This methodology combines best practices with small wins to help people empower themselves.

Closing Keynote Cara Filler

Cara Filler is Driven to Inspire. For the last 18 years, Cara has shared her powerful positive leadership and prevention programs with more than 2 million people in 5 countries. She has become one of the most sought after female motivational speakers in her field.

She empowers students, teachers, parents and complete strangers to make everyday choices count. Why? Because if it causes just ONE person to care more, speak up and stand out – IT'S ALL WORTH IT!

2017 PA SADD Awards

At the 2017 PA SADD Conferences, PA SADD will recognize the stellar work of some of its most outstanding contributors. Chosen from nominations made by PA SADD representatives across the Commonwealth, PA SADD will present the following awards. Award recipients will receive recognition at the state conference (s). Awards will be presented at both the 7-Springs and Lancaster Conferences.

AWARDS DESCRIPTION

- Activity of the Year: This award is for the best activity, campaign, program, or project by a chapter related to SADD's mission of promoting safe and healthy decision-making. Judges will consider the following qualities, among others: innovation, creativity, reach, effectiveness, and collaboration. In your nomination, provide a detailed written summary of the activity, including its name, goal or purpose, date (s) when the activity was held, target audience, number of people affected and how, any costs associated with its implementation, and any resulting media coverage. You may include a letter of support from a school administrator or partner as well as other supporting material.
- Chapter of the Year: This award will be presented to the best SADD chapter. What qualities define a chapter as the best? There can be many different things. Tell us why you think your chapter is the best and provide back up materials to support your nomination. On the nomination form, be sure to include the name of your chapter and your school (including the address), your advisor's name and contact information, a brief history of your chapter, and details about its activities over the past school year, including why you think it should be recognized as Chapter of the Year. You may include news clips, a letter of support from a school administrator and/or parent, or other supporting materials.
- Advisor of the Year: This award will be presented to the individual who is considered the most outstanding SADD advisor. Include the reasons why you think your advisor is the best, share his or her passion for SADD, and provide examples to support your nomination. Please be sure to include the full name, home address, telephone number, and e-mail address for the advisor and the length of time he or she has served as a SADD advisor as well as information about members in your chapter.
