Training is provided at no cost courtesy of the Small Business Development Center at Ohio University.

Join us to learn how to export your goods and services to international markets. Industry experts from the Ohio Export Assistance Network, the Small Business Administration and the US Commercial Service will participate in a panel discussion. Experts will provide information on the basics of exporting, including export readiness, selecting good markets, cultural considerations, getting paid, shipping your products and much more. An experienced exporter will also help you understand the process and all the services available to help you achieve your export goals.
