

SRPC Planning Board UPDATE

11/07/2017

1 Soak Up the Rain New England is hosting two upcoming webinars in November and December. “Exploring the Green Infrastructure Workforce: Jobs, Training and Certification for Installation, Maintenance and Monitoring” will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 15, from 1 – 2:30 p.m. EST and “will share information on key occupations involved in installation, maintenance and monitoring of urban green infrastructure, highlight findings from “Exploring the Green Infrastructure Workforce,” (a national study by Jobs for the Future), and highlight examples of existing and emerging job training and certification programs.”¹

The Thursday, Dec. 14, webinar titled “Engaging Urban Residents: Innovative Approaches to Promoting Community-Based Stormwater Management” will be held from 1–2 p.m. EST. More information will be available soon at <https://www.epa.gov/soakuptherain/soak-rain-new-england-webinar-series>.

1 <https://www.epa.gov/sites/production/files/2017-10/documents/sur-webinar-2017-nov-15.pdf>

2 On Tuesday, Nov. 14, the EPA will host a webinar on “Creating Healthy Places for Healthy People.” This training will take place from 1–2:30 p.m. EST and “will look at the connections among economic, human and environmental health factors and present case studies on the lessons learned to date, as well as ideas on how local communities can create programs and partnerships that can lead to healthier community outcomes.”¹

Speakers will include Stephanie Bertaina, from the U.S. EPA Office of Sustainable Communities; Kate Ange, Alana Braiser, and Caroline Dwyer with Renaissance Planning.

Register here.

1 Source: EPA

3 RESHARE from the SRPC Newsletter:

The New Hampshire Municipal Association (NHMA) will hold its 76th annual conference on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 15 and 16. The theme for this year’s meeting is “The Challenge of Change.” The event will be held at the Radisson hotel in downtown Manchester.

This year two new tracks are being offered, law enforcement and public works. Other session topics include legislative updates, right-to-know law, new ACA regulations, conflicts of interest, appropriate municipal management of street wastes, police liability and qualified immunity, assessing, employment, and welfare.

Learn more about the conference, or register, at:

<https://www.nhmunicipal.org/annualconference>