

Call and Response: E Pluribus Unum

June 22 – September 2, 2018

The historic motto of our nation—out of many, one—is also a way to conceptualize how we make and think about art. Works from FAM's collection and by ArtsWorcester members Jennifer Amenta, Tess Barbato, Aimee Cotnoir, Katherine Grady, Timothy A. Johnson, Amy Klausmeyer, Madeleine Lord, Piyali Samant, Amanda Kidd Schall, and William Scully will be featured in one collaborative exhibition. These twenty works express the theme through technique or subject matter, exploring how multiple parts come together to create a unified experience. Join us in celebrating the opening of this exhibition, along with the 83rd Regional Exhibition of Art & Craft, Lynda Schlosberg: Multiverse, and Howard Johnson: Phantastrophies at FAM's Summer Party on June 22, 6-8pm. Admission is FREE and light refreshments and a cash bar will be available!

185 Elm Street, Fitchburg
978-345-4207
fitchburgartmuseum.org

