

I WAS A STRANGER AND YOU WELCOMED ME??

HUNGER, THE REFUGEE AND THE IMMIGRANT

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2016

LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE INCARNATION, DAVIS, CA

9:30 TO 4:30 P.M.

PRESENTED BY THE SIERRA PACIFIC SYNOD HUNGER NETWORK

Learn how faith and justice are intertwined in a hungry world! This educational workshop by the Sierra Pacific Synod Hunger Network explores both the life-saving work of the ELCA Hunger and Disaster Appeals, and how the immigration and refugee crisis impacts world and domestic hunger. If there is an interest, a parallel children's program will be offered.

- ◆ Keynote Speaker: Johanna Olson, ELCA Global Mission Manager for Relationships for Europe, the Middle East and North Africa, shares stories of ELCA World Hunger and ELCA Disaster Response involvement in the global refugee crisis.
- ◆ Speaker: Pastor Susan Birkelo, Director of the Community Information Center for Migrant Assistance, in Watsonville, CA shares stories of hunger and poverty experienced by immigrants right here in California!
- ◆ Hear recent immigrants tell their own stories.
- ◆ Bible Study Leader: Rev. Tita Valeriano calls us to action with thought-provoking Bible Study
- ◆ Rev. Tita Valeriano will also lead us in closing worship and music of justice and mercy.
- ◆ Asante Fair-Trade Products will be available for Christmas shopping!

Offering at closing worship will be to the ELCA Hunger Appeal. Make offering checks to ELCA Hunger Appeal. An optional social hour follows. Only $10 for the day, including lunch; no charge for congregational hunger contacts, college students or seminarians. If you take AMTRAK California, rides to the workshop will be provided.
