

About us:

RSR Partners is a team of highly experienced consultants with an industry-respected approach to executive and board search. As a leader in executive search and leadership consulting, we are deeply focused on knowledge, collaboration, and transparency. These serve as the foundation for providing our clients the most comprehensive, discreet, and custom solutions possible. For 25 years, we have been at the cutting edge of corporate governance consulting, board director and senior-level recruiting, and strategic talent advisory. We offer a rigorous search methodology, the agility of a boutique firm, and robust access to candidates globally. Our firm works with a select group of clients to build leadership competitive advantages. And our success working with a wide variety of clients reflects the strength of our intellectual capital, creativity, and assessment abilities. In all of our work, we find leaders who make the difference between good and great. Founded by our chairman Russell S. Reynolds, Jr., RSR Partners offers its clientele an exclusive level of advisors who have both in-depth domain expertise and a global network as their search resource. This has made RSR Partners a premier retained board and executive recruiting firm for global business today.

Position: (Research Analyst)

RSR Partners is looking for an Analyst to help senior professionals perform executive searches. Our senior professionals help to shape the business environment by matching businesses with the right leadership while associates learn the skills to do the same. The analyst will research candidates for C-level positions, write interviews, plan out trips and candidate meetings, and perform other related projects. A successful analyst is a hard worker, a great communicator, a disciplined team player, friendly, confident, and relatively modest. RSR Partners will provide the right person with a competitive salary, bonus, benefits, and a great work location. RSR Partners is a growing retained executive search firm founded by industry pioneer Russell Reynolds and is headquartered in Greenwich, CT with offices across the US plus London and Tokyo. Now taking applications for full-time roles and select internships. Qualified candidates are encouraged to apply here on Handshake.

Ideal skills and traits:

- Excellent communication skills (verbal & nonverbal, written, presentations)
- Research abilities (company cultures, industry dynamics, and professional profiles)
- Above average computer/ Microsoft Office skills
- Ability to serve as a liaison between multiple parties

How to Apply:

HuskyCareerLink – Search RSR Partners or Click Here