

Class Notes

Tony Disalvo (1985)

was named Green Bay Packers High School Coach of the Week by the Packers organization. DiSalvo began his football coaching career at Spring Valley (Wis.) High School as the head varsity coach in 1986. After three years, he accepted an assistant coaching position at St. Croix Central. In 2000, he was promoted to the varsity head coaching position for the Panthers. DiSalvo and his wife, Ann, have one daughter, Arinn.

LeaAnn Bohn (1992)

recently accepted two coaching positions for gymnastic teams: Gale-Ettrick-Trempealeau and Onalaska. She was a gymnast for two years at UWRF but was unable to continue due to injury. She had been considering retirement from coaching but instead jumped back in wholeheartedly.

Kyle Schaffer (2012)

has joined the litigation team at Bakke Norman Law Offices. Schaffer received his law degree from the University of St. Thomas School of Law.

Colin S. Seaborg (2012)

is an associate attorney at Arthur, Chapman, Kettering, Smetak & Pikala, P.A., assisting clients with a variety of Minnesota business litigation matters. He received his J.D. from the University of St. Thomas School of Law. Previously he was a law clerk for the Hon. Heidi Schellhas of the Minnesota Court of Appeals.

Connor Nelson (2016)

recently served as a production assistant for the film "Love Always, Santa." The movie was filmed in Minnesota and was picked up by the Hallmark Channel and released in early November.

Brooke Sperberg (2016)

is a relief reproductive specialist with NorthStar Cooperative, Inc., providing services to dairy and beef producers for heat detection and artificial insemination breeding services based on the herd owner's genetic and production goals.
