St. George Antiochian Orthodox Cathedral

His Eminence Metropolitan JOSEPH, Archbishop of
New York and Metropolitan of all North America

His Grace, Bishop JOHN, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Worcester and New England

Rev. Fr. Milad Selim, Dean

Rev. Fr. Seraphim Solof, Assistant Pastor

Rev. Dn. Anthony Payne

We are happy to welcome visitors to the Orthodox Church. We are blessed by your presence. Because the Orthodox Church understands communion to be the union of its membership, only those Orthodox Christians who have prepared properly should approach the chalice for communion. Those who belong to other “communions”, but would like to come into the Orthodox Church, should speak to one of our clergy to begin preparation. Thank you for your respect and understanding.

The Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians. (3:23-4:5)

Brethren, before faith came, we were confined under the Law, kept under restraint until faith should be revealed. So that the Law was our custodian until Christ came, that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a custodian; for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no better than a slave, though he is the owner of all the estate; but he is under guardians and trustees until the date set by the father. So with us; when we were children, we were slaves to the elemental spirits of the universe. But when the time had fully come, God sent forth His Son, to redeem those who were under the Law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke. (18:18-27)

At that time, a man came testing Jesus and asking, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery. Do not kill. Do not steal. Do not bear false witness. Honor your father and mother.'" And the man said, "All these I have observed from my youth." And when Jesus heard it, he said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me." But when the man heard this he became sad, for he was very rich. Jesus, seeing him sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."

RESURRECTIONAL APOLYTIKION IN TONE ONE

While the stone was sealed by the Jews, and the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst arise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. For which cause the heavenly powers cried aloud unto Thee, O giver of life. Glory to Thy Resurrection, O Christ, glory to Thy kingdom, glory to Thy providence, O Thou Who alone art the lover of mankind.

APOLYTIKION OF ENTRANCE OF THE THEOTOKOS IN TONE FOUR

Today the Virgin is the foreshadowing of the pleasure of God, and the beginning of the preaching of the salvation of mankind. Thou hast appeared in the Temple of God openly and hast gone before, preaching Christ to all. Let us shout with one thrilling voice, saying, Rejoice, O thou who art the fulfillment of the Creator's dispensation.

APOLYTIKION OF ST. KATHERINE THE GREAT-MARTYR IN TONE FIVE

Let us praise the all-lauded and noble bride of Christ, * the godly Katherine, the guardian of Sinai and its defense, * who is also our support and succor and our help; * for with the Holy Spirit's sword * she hath silenced brilliantly the clever among the godless; * and being crowned as a Martyr, she now doth ask great mercy for us all.

KONTAKION OF ENTRANCE OF THE THEOTOKOS IN TONE FOUR

The sacred treasury of God's holy glory, * the greatly precious bridal chamber and Virgin, * the Savior's most pure temple, free of stain and undefiled, * into the House of the Lord * on this day is brought forward * and bringeth with herself the grace * of the Most Divine Spirit; * her do God's Angels hymn with songs of praise, * for she is truly the heavenly tabernacle.

Ministry of the Apostles - A Higher Calling By: Fr. Milad

The early church of Antioch flourished through the work of the Apostles. The needs of the faithful were met by the gifts of the Holy Spirit given to those Apostles. Their ministry went beyond preaching. They ministered to the poor, widows, sick and imprisoned. When the Church grew, more people, both men and women, were chosen and appointed to spread the faith and meet the needs of the people.

As our Cathedral community continues to grow and our work spreads beyond our four walls, a need for a new ministry has risen. Thankfully, we don't need to reinvent the wheel and think of new and creative ways to make such a ministry successful; we have the example of the Church of Antioch to guide us. Therefore, we have embraced a new ministry here at the Cathedral that will focus on service and support for "ALL" of the needs of our parishioners, organizations and outreach projects. We will call it, The Ministry of the Apostles. The ministry's main goal is to serve wherever and whenever a need arises, both within and outside of our Cathedral community. It will provide support to our Men's and Women's Clubs, Choir, Church School, Teen SOYO, Young Adult Ministry and Parish Council. We will visit the sick in their homes, hospitals and nursing facilities. We will plan fellowship family nights and events for the entire community to participate in. We will provide Christian education opportunities in both English and Arabic based on the needs of our parishioners. This ministry is open to the entire community, men, women and children.

This new ministry will have two patron Saints, Paul and Thekla, who were fellow-servants in the Lord and whose ministry and preaching established the foundation of our faith. You may remember that St. Thekla, who is called, Equal to the Apostles, listened to the preaching of St. Paul through her window and was intrigued by what St. Paul was saying about Jesus. Her faith and courage led her away from her betrothed and her family as she began preaching the Gospel of Christ and healing the sick through prayer. Together, their Apostolic work helped spread the Gospel according to the Great Commission of our Lord, Jesus Christ. We will use their faithfulness, zeal, love and courage as a guide and measure for this new ministry. We will look to emulate their selfless service to Christ and His Church through our service to others.

The rich history of our Orthodox Church is full of examples of faithful servants who put aside their own needs for the sake of the other, thus emulating Christ's own selfless sacrifice for us. It is worth noting that we are truly blessed here at our Cathedral to have many parishioners whose only desire is to selflessly serve. It is precisely this kind of attitude that leads to the growth of a church community. Let us then, my beloved servants in the Lord, continue to look outside of ourselves and attend to the needs of our beloved Cathedral and those who are within and outside of her. I look forward to serving alongside each and every one of you on this blessed ministry, growing in our faith and becoming one with our Lord and one another.

* * *    A WITNESS FOR CHRIST    * * *

It has often been said that "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the faith." The infant Christian Church of the first centuries, struggling in an inhospitable and pagan world, was indeed inspired by the acts of martyrdom that occurred at the hands of the Romans. It wasn't long before the faith began to infiltrate the ranks of the imperial army.

ST. MERCURIOS was a Roman soldier, an officer of great courage and skill. His triumphs in battle brought him to the attention of Emperor Decius, who made him a general. But even generals have enemies, those who are envious of their attainments. Mercurios, a secret Christian, had his share of those who watched him carefully for anything that might discredit him.

It was soon noticed that Mercurios did not attend the pagan services to the Roman gods, but that, in fact, he attended Christian worship services. Decius was informed of the breach of Roman law, and he promptly confronted the soldier. Without hesitation, Mercurios expressed his faith in God alone, and in His Son the Saviour, Jesus Christ. The emperor then issued orders for his death, which occurred about the year 251 in Cappadocia. Many sick people have been healed by the wonder-working relics of this ancient saint.

It can be said that the lives that Christians lead today still bear witness to the commitment of the "warriors" of long ago. Let us go forth and live our lives, showing people around us the vitality of our faith in the Lord. May our good works continue to be for the glory of our Father in heaven.

Charles M. Dowd MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

St. George Orthodox Cathedral • Worcester, MA

Dear Sponsors and Golfers,

On behalf of the Charles M. Dowd Memorial Golf Tournament Committee, I would like to thank all of the sponsors and golfers who have so generously given of their time, resources and commitment to help make our most recent tournament a great success and for their steadfast dedication to this event year after year. We are proud to have a record number of golfers who took to the course this year. We could not achieve the success of fundraising for our Cathedral were it not for all of you and for your continued support. It is greatly appreciated!

Thanks to all of you, we were able to raise a successful amount of money to contribute to our St. George Orthodox Cathedral. Events such as this, help to not only strengthen St. George Cathedral and meet the costs to maintain our facility and grounds and future improvements, but also help to build camaraderie amongst our parishioners and within the community. It requires a team effort and we are blessed to have a strong team. Please know that your contribution has played an important role in this endeavor.

We are please to announce that the 2019 Charles M Dowd Memorial Golf Tournament will be held again next year at The Haven Country Club, on a date to be determined soon.
