St. George Orthodox Cathedral, 30 Anna Street, Worcester, MA 01604

St. George Antiochian Orthodox Cathedral

His Eminence Metropolitan JOSEPH, Archbishop of
New York and Metropolitan of all North America

His Grace, Bishop JOHN, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Worcester and New England

Rev. Fr. Milad Selim, Dean

Rev. Fr. Seraphim Solof, Assistant Pastor

Rev. Dn. Anthony Payne

We are happy to welcome visitors to the Orthodox Church. We are blessed by your presence. Because the Orthodox Church understands communion to be the union of its membership, only those Orthodox Christians who have prepared properly should approach the chalice for communion. Those who belong to other "communions", but would like to come into the Orthodox Church, should speak to one of our clergy to begin preparation. Thank you for your respect and understanding.

The Reading from the First Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians. (15:1-11)

Brethren, I would remind you in what terms I preached to you the Gospel, which you received, in which you stand, by which you are saved, if you hold it fast—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that He was buried, that He rose on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. Then He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then He appeared to James, then to all the Apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, He appeared also to me. For I am the least of the Apostles, unfit to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God, which is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew. (19:16-26)

At that time, a young man came up to Jesus, kneeling and saying, "Good Teacher, what good deed must I do, to have eternal life?" And He said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. If you would enter life, keep the commandments." He said to Him, "Which?" And Jesus said, "You shall not kill, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, honor your father and mother, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself." The young man said to Him, "All these I have observed; what do I still lack?" Jesus said to him, "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." When the young man heard this, he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions. And Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly, I say to you, it will be hard for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." When the disciples heard this they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?" But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

RESURRECTIONAL APOLYTIKION IN TONE THREE

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad, for the Lord hath done a mighty act with His own arm. He hath trampled down death by death, and become the first-born from the dead. He hath delivered us from the depths of Hades, granting the world the Great Mercy.

APOLYTIKION OF THE DORMITION IN TONE ONE

In thy birth-giving, O Theotokos, thou didst keep and preserve virginity; and in thy falling-asleep thou hast not forsaken the world; for thou wast translated into life, being the Mother of Life. Wherefore, by thine intercessions, deliver our souls from death.

KONTAKION OF THE DORMITION IN TONE TWO

Verily, the Theotokos, who is ever watchful in intercessions, and whose prayers are never rejected, neither tomb nor death could control. But since she is the Mother of Life, He Who dwelt in her ever-virgin womb did translate her to life.

DEFENDING THE FAITH FROM HERETICS

SAINT IRENAIOS was a guardian of Christianity who helped shape the early Church. He was born around 120 A.D. in the Asia Minor city of Smyrna. In his youth, he was a pupil of Saint Polycarp, a disciple of the Apostles.

Stories of Gaul, a distant land of spiritual darkness, attracted Irenaios. It was in the city of Lyons, that he felt he could best serve his Master. Although Christians outnumbered pagans, Irenaios was distressed to find out that the biggest threat was from WITHIN the church community. His untiring efforts lead to the cleansing of this divisive faction and kept his believers on the path to the True Faith. The hard work resulted in his elevation to Bishop of Lyons.

Irenaios was a peace-maker within the Church. One accomplishment attributed to him came as a result of a heated controversy over the date to celebrate the highest of all holydays, Pascha. This confusion led to it being observed on DIFFERENT Sundays in different parts of the Christian world! Under these misguided calculations, Pascha could even fall on a WEEKDAY rather than Sunday! The last thing that the fragile early Church needed was a disagreement weakening its beliefs. Along with Bishop Victor of Rome, they were able to resolve the issue. It is interesting to note that these numerous different dates were reduced to the 2 that still exist between the Eastern and Western Churches.

In the year 202 A.D., evil Emperor Severus was ruthlessly persecuting Christians. Irenaios suffered for our Lord along with nineteen thousand martyrs. May he serve as a pious example and guard us from straying from the path of the Gospel of our Lord.
