

THE PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

As we celebrate PENTECOST, it is our pious custom to sing the prayer to the Holy Spirit. The words of the hymn are: "O Heavenly King and Comforter, Spirit of truth, Who art in all places and fillest all things, the treasure of blessings and giver of life, come and dwell in us. Cleanse us from all impurity, and save, O Blessed One, our souls."

We are happy to welcome visitors to the Orthodox Church. We are blessed by your presence. Because the Orthodox Church understands communion to be the union of its membership, only those Orthodox Christians who have prepared properly should approach the chalice for communion. Those who belong to other “communions”, but would like to come into the Orthodox Church, should speak to one of our clergy to begin preparation. Thank you for your respect and understanding.

The Reading from the Epistle from the Acts of the Apostles (2:1-11)

When the day of Pentecost had come, the Disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God."

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John (7:37-52; 8:12)

On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and proclaimed, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.'" Now this He said about the Spirit, which those who believed in Him were to receive; for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. When they heard these words, many of the people said, "This is really the prophet." Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Is the Christ to come from Galilee? Has not the Scripture said that the Christ is descended from David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" So there was a division among the people over Him. Some of them wanted to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on Him. The officers then went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?" The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!" The Pharisees answered them, "Are you led astray, you also? Have any of the authorities or the Pharisees believed in Him? But this crowd, who do not know the Law, are accursed." Nicodemus, who had gone to Him before, and who was one of them, said to them, "Does our Law judge a man without first giving him a hearing and learning what he does?" They replied, "Are you from Galilee too? Search and you will see that no prophet is to rise from Galilee." Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

APOLYTIKION OF PENTECOST IN TONE EIGHT

Blessed art Thou, O Christ our God, Who hast revealed the fishermen as most wise, having sent upon them the Holy Spirit, and through them Thou hast fished the universe, O Lover of mankind, glory to Thee.

KONTAKION OF PENTECOST IN TONE EIGHT

When the High One descended, confusing tongues, He divided the nations. And when He distributed the fiery tongues He called all to one unity. Wherefore, in unison we glorify the most Holy Spirit.

Mother's Day Dinner Thank You: Words cannot express the warmth, love, and appreciation that I felt this past Sunday when I was honored by the parish at the Mother's Day Luncheon. The words of Fr Milad, Robert Wehbe, and Gayle Mackoul were heartwarming and humbling as well. It was an honor to serve the St. George Church School for so many years, and truly gratifying to see the fruits of my labor. Robert, you are on a path blessed by God and have an invaluable mentor in Fr. Milad. Many thanks to all who coordinated this luncheon and all those who cooked in the kitchen. I would be remiss if I did not thank Steve Husson for his love, support, and availability to me. He was always there when I needed him, Thank you Steve! And I cannot even begin to show my appreciation of the beautiful Icon of the Theotokos that was given to me by the parish. I was so overwhelmed by its beauty, that it took my breath away. The Icon will hang in our new home and serve as a reminder of the love from the people of St. George Orthodox Cathedral, Worcester. And I can tell you right now there will never be Church Bread as good as the bread at St. George! With love and humility, I remain, in Christ, Mary Ann Kourey.

Go Bless you all: Joseph & Lillian Eid, David & Kitty Dowd, John & Susan Haffty, Najib & Elaine Saliba, Sheryl Bourisk & Paul Minda, Kevin Mercadante, Bruce & Elaine Bartolini, MaryAnn Dowd, Samer Aleid DMD, PC, Rod Haddad, Nicholas & Ligia Masterjohn, Richard Aramony, Casey Family, Beverly DeMarco, John & Heidi Dowd, Richard & Sharon Dowd, Shirley Dowd, Leslie Dowd, Nassir Joe Sabrah, Bay State Savings Bank, Paul & Tracey Dowd, McDonough Family, and Joe & Gail Mackoul.

Let us consider its meaning:

- O Heavenly King: We do not often think of the Holy Spirit as King, but He is the One who has come to reign over our hearts and souls. He has come to rule over our lives, to influence them, to inspire them, that we might live as our Lord has bid us.

- And Comforter: What a meaningful and beloved name this is! In all the difficulties of life . . . in our sorrows, mourning, pain and illness, the Holy Spirit comes to comfort and strengthen us.

- Spirit of truth: There is so much that is false in life, so much twisting of the truth on earth. So we turn to Him, Who is truth itself, in Whom there is not even the shadow of falsehood.

- Who are in all places and fillest all things: No matter where we go in life, no matter to what deep recesses we may descend or heights we may ascend, the Holy Spirit is already there.

- Treasure of blessings: He is the source of all that is good. People talk about certain places on earth as being "paradise." There is no paradise in any material place; the blessed life is in our soul.

- Giver of life: All life comes from God, He is the source of life. He is in particular the source of spiritual life. At baptism, a new-born child is filled with the Holy Spirit.

- Come and dwell in us: St. Paul wrote, "Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that God's Spirit dwells in you? God's temple is holy, and that temple you are . . ." Jesus, too, spoke of this, saying "I will ask the Father and He will send you the Holy Spirit . . . you know Him for He dwells with you, and will be in you."

- Cleanse us from all impurity: Remember the time the Lord breathed on the apostles and said: "Receive ye the Holy Spirit . . . whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven . . . and whose sins you retain, they are retained . . ." So it is through the Holy Spirit that we are cleansed from all that defiles body and soul.

- And save, O Blessed One, our souls: Our Lord once asked, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul?" We ought to be concerned with our salvation. It is the Holy Spirit that does this by inspiring us to have the strength to persevere until all things have come to pass.

Remembering in Perpetuity the Benefactors of the St. George Endowment Fund

Christ is in our midst!
He was, He is, and ever shall be!

Having just concluded the Paschal season, we remain joyously reminded of God's promise of eternal life. In that promise, we take great comfort when thinking of friends and family members, not only those who remain with us, but especially those who have fallen asleep in the Lord, now joined with Christ in His Kingdom, in a place of light and peace, where all sickness and sorrow has passed.

On Memorial Sunday, the Cathedral offers a special remembrance to the members of the Parish who have provided for the St. George Endowment Fund.

In the case of those who are departed, these are the parishioners who made a bequest in their estate planning. The people we remember annually on the Sunday of Memorial Day Weekend understood that the Endowment Fund holds great potential for the future of St. George Cathedral. Every dollar given to the Fund remains intact in perpetuity. Only the interest generated by the Endowment is used to advance various important Parish and charitable goals.

It is therefore altogether fitting that we remember our benefactors in perpetuity. Every year, on this "Memorial Sunday," the Cathedral will offer special prayers for the health of, and in loving memory of those who made a bequest to the Cathedral's Endowment Fund. Please join us in commemorating them, and in praying for those who had the faith and good judgment to remember the Cathedral in their wills.

We remember them not only with our prayers for their health, for their eternal rest and joy in the kingdom of heaven, but also with our gratitude for their vision to help us carry on the work of the Cathedral in perpetuity through their generosity to the Endowment.

May God grant many years to the living and give eternal rest to the souls of the departed while giving comfort to their family and friends.

JOIN THE ENDOWMENT ANGELS

Becoming an Endowment Angel is a simple, tangible way to fulfill your desire as a member or friend of St. George Cathedral to help secure our financial stability today - while expanding our possibilities and legacy for future generations. It is easy, regardless of your current financial situation.

Endowment Angels are people who have made a verifiable commitment to include the Endowment Fund in their estate plan or who have made a gift of at least $5,000 in their lifetime. Families may also honor loved ones past with a posthumous gift in that person's name.

Endowment Angels will also receive special recognition on Memorial Sunday and in other ways under consideration, both while alive and after they pass.

HERE IS HOW TO BECOME AN ENDOWMENT ANGEL:

- * Include a simple phrase in your will or estate plan, naming the Endowment Fund. Your commitment will be verified by your attorney. This can be as simple as: "I hereby leave to the St. George Endowment Fund, 30 Anna Street, Worcester MA the sum of $_____, or _____% of my estate."
- * Simply instruct your insurance agent to add the St. George Endowment Fund a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, in the amount of $_____.
- * Make a gift now to St. George Endowment Fund of at least $5,000 in your name or the name of a loved one (this minimum level may be reached with several gifts added together over time).

Thank You and God Bless!
